LANDON IN WEST--ROOSEVELT IN NEW ENGLAND

Alice Longworth Says

(Special To The News)
CINCINNATI, Oct. 21.—There is diversity of opinion about the arrangement made by the United States government, in concert with the British and French governments, for inter-change of gold to maintain parity of currency standards. Authorities in Washington say they have finally taken international money control out of the hands of speculators. Financial men say control has been taken from experts and given to politicians.

Financiers may cry "politician!" and Washington may reply "economic royalist," but Washington has the power, the gold, and the glory; leaving the financiers what comfort they can get out of the hope that all may be well.

As citizens who knew little of high finance have been watching with amazed interest the accumulation of half the world's monetary gold in a hole in the ground in the Kentucky mountains. If this store of metal really represents hours of labor, material wealth, or security for the future, our people would like to be sure this time that we shall get something besides a promissory note for the billions we send across the Atlantic.

PA NEWS OBSERVES

WPA workers on the old Pittsburgh road had an experience on Tuesday which proves something or other about rabbits. They had rolled a huge boulder down over a hill and a rabbit was directly in the line of fire. The rabbit went up into the air like a skyrocket and falling back to earth laid stretched out like a parlor curtain. One of the men walked down and grabbed the rabbit by the hind leg when it suddenly came to life and dashed away.

Tuesday was one of the warmest October days on record, the mercury hitting 85 in the shade. In October a year ago, the mercury hit 86, but it happened sooner in the month, on the 14th to be exact.

Even though North street is being widened, motorists who use that thoroughfare report that travel over the east portion of the street is difficult because of parking on both sides of the street. They believe that parking should be confined to one side of the street only.

Those who like to watch the sky will find another meteoric shower, lesser in degree than the Perseids, during the coming week. They will be seen at their best in the eastern sky, astronomers report.

Owing to the absence of any killing frosts, farmers are being delayed in digging their potatoes. In some fields the tops are yet green and it is said that they will not keep as well if dug when the tops are green. However as long as the tops are green the potatoes will be getting larger so that there will be some compensation.

CONTINUES ATTACK ON NEW DEAL POLICY

Starts Eastward Enthusiastic Over Reception Accorded On Coast

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Cal. Oct. 21.—Climaxing his invasion of California by charging the Roosevelt administration with abusing its governmental powers, with violating the bill of rights and with undermining American liberties, Governor Alfred M. Landon headed eastward today to close his presidential campaign with a trans-continental tour.

The Republican nominee in a major address here charged the New Deal with conducting a reign of terror against all critics. He accused President Roosevelt of leading an attack on the supreme court with the intent of undermining it and bringing it into disrepute.

Landon scathingly indicted the administration. He charged it with using its great powers to foster monopoly and hamstring small business. He accused it of using public funds to coerce members of campaigns and local officials. He charged it with using relief funds to intimidate voters and terrorize relief workers. He charged it with enacting tax bills as punitive measures against non-conformers and lastly accused it of using a congressional investigation in an attempt to crush the Townsend movement, because it opposed the New Deal.

"If we are to preserve our American form of government," said Landon, "this administration must be defeated."

Cheered By 75,000

This ultimatum brought an audience of 75,000 in the giant Coliseum to its collective feet in a terrific outburst of cheering. So, too, did each specific indictment of the New Deal.

Landon was in fine spirits as he started eastward. He left Los Angeles with Republican leaders declaring his visit had launched a tidal wave of sentiment that would sweep California into the Landon column on November 3, despite all (Continued On Page Ten)

AGAINST LAW TO MAKE BET ON ELECTION

Anybody Caught Betting On Election In State Can Be Disfranchised

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Oct. 21.—Better not bet on the election outcome in Pennsylvania—there's a law against it.

In fact, there are three laws, all very emphatic about limiting the activities of prognosticators to just plain prognosticating.

But, Capitol Hill observers admitted today, they can't recall any prosecutions brought under the laws.

Severe Penalties

The consequences, however, for violators of the laws—if you're caught—are pretty serious.

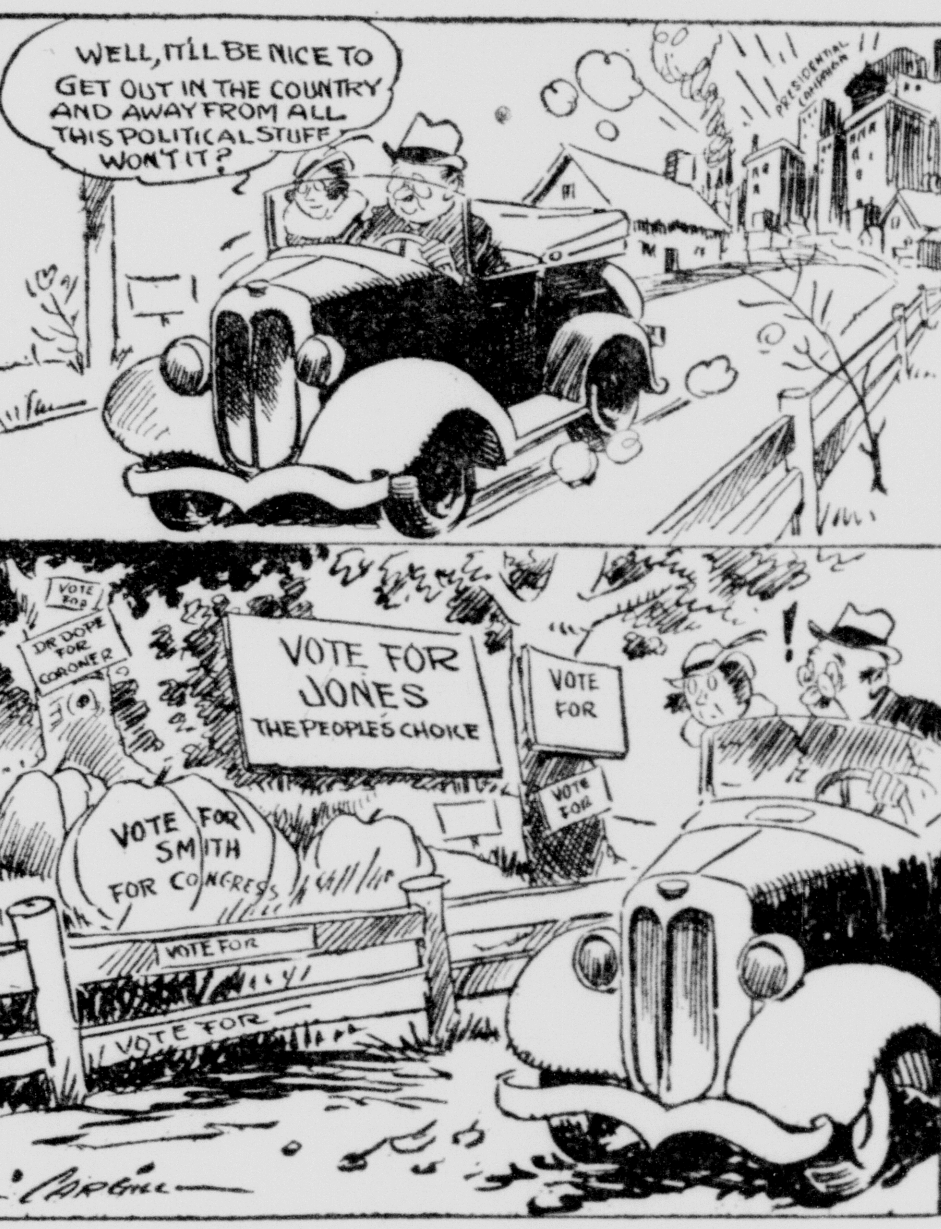

Section 1227 of the election code says a person caught betting on elections in Pennsylvania can be disfranchised.

Section 2121 says: "Any person who makes any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this commonwealth . . . shall, upon conviction, thereof, forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet."

But the money can go to a good cause, in that Section 2152 provides that poor directors can—and must—prosecute bettors, the amount of the wager going to the needy.

Observers point out, however, that any one betting on the outcome in Pennsylvania deserves to be fined for not knowing better.

Will Ask Court Action On Status Of McNair-Scully

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—"Prompt and definite" determination of whether Cornelius J. Scully or William N. McNair is mayor of Pittsburgh was to be asked of common pleas court today by District Attorney Andrew T. Park.

Park announced his decision to petition the court for a writ of quo warranto, contesting Scully's right to the mayoral office, last night, and said he had studied "briefs of both sides."

Carries Message Of "Better Times" To Crowds In Rhode Island Today

WILL MAKE TALKS IN THREE STATES

Speaks Tonight From Worcester, Mass.—To Broadcast Speech

By GEORGE DUBNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

EN ROUTE WITH ROOSEVELT THROUGH MASSACHUSETTS, Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt carried his message of better times under the New Deal into New England today in a hectic motor tour that took him through large crowds, snarled traffic and ineffectual police lines.

The cross-country parade started this morning at Providence, R. I., where the president left his special train. There, he attacked the regimentation of the people by selfish interests into "bankruptcies and breadlines" under preceding administrations and promised it would not happen under his.

25,000 At Capitol

More than 25,000 crowded onto the state capitol plaza, heard his brief address. Then the trek into Massachusetts began. Tonight at Worcester, Mr. Roosevelt makes a major campaign speech.

Testimonial Dinner Given David S. Pyle

Tribute to the outstanding worth of David S. Pyle as a citizen of New Castle was expressed by those with whom he has been associated here during his lifetime, at the testimonial dinner sponsored by the New Castle Chamber of Commerce in The Castleton last evening.

Over a hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pyle sat down with them at the dinner table. The kind expressions of esteem and friendship, which came from the lips of the speakers, seemed to express the warmest thoughts of all who were present. The fullness of David S. Pyle's devotion to the industry in which he has labored for forty-four years and his devotion to the community in which he has resided all this time, were extolled by those who know him best.

By THOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Oct. 21.—Heavy siege guns of Gen. Francisco Franco's rebels today were rolled within range of Madrid, while the Loyalists, massing 100,000 militiamen in a general call to arms, battled furiously in what may be their last counter-offensive to save Madrid.

"We have launched a counter-attack in the Tagus sector south of Madrid," said a communique from the war ministry today. "The insurgents are retreating with heavy losses."

"A surprise attack on Robledo (near Navalperal, northwest of Madrid) was successful, and 25 rebels were killed."

Rebels Deny Report

Not only is the government communique a complete fabrication, according to the rebel radio station at Seville, but the counter-offensive at Illescas was repulsed and the Loyalists driven back nine miles to Getafe—bringing the Insurreto vanguard to within 10 miles of the capital—their closest approach of the war.

Rebels said more than 300 Loyalists were killed in the battle of Illescas, and Moors and Foreign Legionnaires are now being formed, backed by a constantly inflowing (Continued On Page Two)

PRETTY GIRLS STAGE HOLDUP

Four Pretty Young Women Holdup Undertaking Establishment, Get Money, Watch

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Arnold Moore an undertaker's assistant, has no preference for blondes. Nor does he care for brunettes.

Four pretty girls strolled into the undertaking establishment last night—a blonde and three brunettes. They said they'd like to see the chapel.

Inside the chapel the blonde pulled from her purse a nickel plated revolver, and commanded:

"Get back into that office and hand me the fishbox."

Moore handed her the "fishbox" (cash drawer), which held $650. Then one of the brunettes took Moore's watch, a ring and $10.

"Get into the chapel and lie down," the blonde ordered.

Moore did. When he got up the blonde and brunettes were gone.

The fever and the heat increase, orators are all aflame, the home stretch now is being trod in this political campaign. And evening calm is rent and torn by speakers who would win your vote, the while they call the other gang a bunch of thugs or worthy note. And arguments are daily fare with folks who plod along the street, for politics brings wordy wars, and arguments are always meat. But soon the storm will settle down, the votes will soon be cast and say, we'll have to quit our arguing, the weather's seventy four today.

Two Die In Chair For Killing Policeman As He Pursued Them After Holdup

VICTIM'S BROTHERS WATCH EXECUTION

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—After a day and long evening spent playing pinhole with their guards, receiving visits from their sweethearts, consuming hearty steak dinners with apparent relish, and nervously pacing their cells, two young men, convicted of killing a policeman, were executed in the electric chair at the county jail early today.

Frank "Bones" Kozeczkowski, 27, entered the grim room at 1:04 a. m. Among the 112 witnesses seated on benches back of the glass partition watching guards adjust the black mask and the electrodes, were four brothers of the slain policeman.

Kozeczkowski was pronounced dead at 1:10 a. m.

Andrew Bogacki was led into the room of death at 1:15, a burly guard at either arm. He joined his partner in crime in death at 1:16 a. m.

The two were convicted of killing Policeman Jerome McCauley last May 19, as he pursued them from the scene of a holdup.

PRESIDENT STARTS CAMPAIGN TOUR IN NEW ENGLAND

autos, all trying to get into the procession and few of them belonging.

Cars jockeyed dangerously for position at high rates of speed and it was remarkable there were no accidents.

From Providence to Fall River, Mass., an 18-mile run, they careened back and forth three abreast.

Streets were lined in Fall River, home of the late Louis McHenry Howe, who was the president's chief secretary and political adviser for years.

Mr. Roosevelt paused to say a word of greeting and pay tribute to Howe's memory. The town common was jammed with milling people who broke through police lines and prevented more than half of the official party from getting within a block of the ceremonies.

Three states—Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut—were going to see a lot of Mr. Roosevelt today and tomorrow, although the ambitious scope of his itinerary precluded more than a passing stop at any of the 29 cities and towns to be visited.

The president will wind up a fast day of motor campaigning tonight in Worcester, Mass., with a major political address. It will be nationally broadcast at 10 p. m. EST.

The presidential special reached Providence, R. I., shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. From the Rhode Island capital, after a brief speech, his motor tour started. Mrs. Roosevelt joined the party at Providence.

Enroute to Boston

At Seekonk, Mass., the party was to pick up Mrs. James Roosevelt, wife of the president's eldest son. Thence, in fast order the motorcade was scheduled to pass through Fall River, New Bedford, Fairhaven, Taunton, Bridgewater, Brockton, Quincy and Boston. Brief words of greeting were anticipated from the president at each point, while he will pause a bit longer in Boston.

Heading to Worcester from Boston, the presidential route will pass through Cambridge, Watertown, Waltham, Western, Waketown, Sudbury and Marlboro.

The night will be spent aboard the Roosevelt special train, moving up from Providence to Worcester, and early tomorrow morning the president will swing into Connecticut where 11 towns and cities will be contacted, again by motor, beginning at Hartford.

Late tomorrow night Mr. Roosevelt planned to be back in Washington, and he says he will not leave the national capital before Tuesday, October 27. He is scheduled to speak in New York City on October 28 and again on October 31, to wind up his campaign.

White, pastor of the First M. E. church, delivered the invocation. Special music was furnished by the Smith-Williams orchestra. Peggysing was directed by Mrs. J. A. Osterhouse of Ellwood City.

It is unusual to get two speakers as talented as the two who appeared on the speaking program.

The first was Mrs. Walter Riggs of McKeesport, who devoted most of her time to the Social Security Act which she termed the "Unsocial Security Act".

People Being Tricked.

"The people of this nation are being tricked if they think this bill is a protection against old age or is a protection against insurance," said she. "Under its terms you have no policy or contract with the government. You have no choice of paying or not paying. Your money is deducted from the payroll and the amounts will be invested in government bonds. These bonds will have to be redeemed by the government which means that the same people will pay for the redemption as paid the money in the first place. The government promises to pay the worker certain amounts when he reaches a certain age but the New Deal government has already broken many of its promises and would be just as liable to break this one. It is merely another brain trust dodge to get more taxes."

Russian Speaker.

The second speaker was Dr. Elizabeth Judas, a Russian by birth, a former follower of Red doctrine in Russia, a woman who saw her own relatives murdered by the Communists, a woman who because of her own bitter experience with Russian Communism is on a speaking tour warning the American citizenry against the New Deal which she said had its birth in Russia.

CALIFORNIA GUESTS TENDERED FAREWELL

Tuesday evening members of the West Side Needlecraft club gathered in the home of Mrs. Hugh Stewart on Croton avenue for a steward dinner party, to honor two California guests, Mrs. Rita Atkinson and Mrs. Louise V. Leathers. They have just concluded an extended visit here, this being their former home city.

Seasonal appointments predominated in the table decorations, where the delicious full course menu was served at 7 o'clock. A bouquet of flowers adorned the center. Immediately following, Mrs. Atkinson and Mrs. Leathers were each showered with an array of dainty hankies in behalf of the assemblage as tokens of friendship and affection. The hours that ensued were spent leisurely with informal diversions and conversation.

The Californians departed this morning for the west, after an eight weeks' visit with their sisters, Mrs. Hugh Stewart and Mrs. A. E. Tullis, West Washington street.

On Tuesday, November 3, the club will meet in regular session at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Tullis.

JUNIOR B. P. W. HOLDS HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The summer cottage of Geraldine McClelland was haunted through and through Tuesday evening, with weird looking ghosts of all sizes sauntering about the rooms, amidst a setting of hoot owls, skeletons and other witchcraft, set off in dim lights. Upon unmasking, it was discovered the creatures turned out to be members of the Junior B. P. W. club who had assembled for their annual Halloween party.

Adding to the weirdness of the occasion, stories of murders were related by several of the group, and in conclusion Elsie Wasko predicted horrible futures for the attending guests as an additional feature on the evening's program.

Refreshments were served at a suitable hour, the table appointments and menu further carrying out the season's motif. The committee in charge, composed of Elsie Wasko, Helen Woods and Claudia Bauman.

REHEARSAL SUPPER FOR WEDDING PARTY

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. David H. Kay, of Fairfield avenue, entertained at a rehearsal supper for the bridal party named for the wedding of Jeanne Patterson and Charles M. Kay.

The guest list included members of the immediate families of the couple, out of town friends here for the event, and the bridal party. A buffet supper was served following the rehearsal.

Out of town participants included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patterson, of Wilmington, Del., Miss Natalie Brown and Mrs. Maurice Harwood, Charles Fitzwillson, the latter a classmate of the groom, all of Pittsburgh.

LUNCHEON HONORS CALIFORNIA GUESTS

Mrs. Dolly Grimm of Hollywood, Cal., and Mrs. Lida Roughore of Santa Barbara, Cal., house guests of Mrs. Margaret Robins of Walnut street, were delightfully entertained at a 12 o'clock luncheon Tuesday, in the home of Mrs. Harry W. Ritchie on Walnut street.

The honor guests are cousins of Mrs. Robins and Mrs. Ritchie, the group not having seen each other for 35 years. Needless to say, the event yesterday was a most happy one, reminiscences forming the main entertainment of the hours following an elegant luncheon.

Those participating were: Mrs. Bertha Stump, Edenburg; Mrs. Walter Earl, Mrs. Thelma Black, Mrs. Ray Preston and son Jackie, the honorees, Mrs. Grimm and Mrs. Roughore, Mrs. Robins and Mrs. Ritchie.

A group of friends and relatives gathered in the home of Mrs. Louise Fornaturo, Monday evening to help celebrate her birthday anniversary, which proved a complete surprise.

The hours were spent informally, and later lunch was served at a table decorated in Halloween suggestions. Those who aided in serving included Julia Fornaturo, Lucy, Louise and Ida Pizzitola and Amelia Iacobucci.

A number of pretty gifts were presented the guest of honor.

FOUR GENERATIONS AT 72ND BIRTHDAY PARTY

It was a happy day on Sunday, October 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Barris, on the Mt. Jackson road, the reason for which was mother's birthday.

There the family gathered to celebrate the 72nd birthday of Mrs. Sarah Rice, of Lyndal street, this city. The outstanding feature of the day was the presence of four generations. These were Mrs. Sarah Rice, the guest of honor; Mrs. Sarah Barris, the hostess; Ransom Barris, Jr., and Miss Erma Jean Barris.

Late in the evening Mrs. Rice was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, a gift from the children. The day so full of life and joy will long be remembered by everyone present.

QUEEN ESTHERS HAVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

October meeting of the First M. E. Queen Esther auxiliary was held in the church parlors Tuesday evening, in the form of a Halloween party.

The meeting was opened with devotionals in charge of Alma Locke, music featuring. Business session, presiding, followed with reports from committees on various activities.

Mrs. E. C. Beahm gave a short talk on "Citizenship".

Two duets were sung by Freda Gillespie and Lucy Ann Rupert with Kathryn Hoover accompanist.

Forty-five members journeyed to the dining room and refreshments were served from a truly Halloween table, the centerpiece being a large pumpkin filled with fruit and flanked by tall tapers.

Following refreshments much hilarity reigned when the lights went out and Halloween games were played.

The success of the evening is due to Mesdames Bessie C. Pitzer, W. A. Womer, James Elmore, Joseph Hartland, Misses Martha Bigley and Mary Alice White and the entertainment chairman, Mrs. M. R. Hornung.

SERVICE STAR LEGION PLANS CARD PARTY

Service Star legion gathered Tuesday evening, in the home of Mrs. Sarah Thomas, East Washington street, to complete plans for a card and bingo party on October 29.

The affair will be held in the Legion Home, and Mrs. Katherine Whitlatch named chairman on arrangements.

After the business session last night, bingo was played, the awards falling to Mrs. Katherine Whitlatch, Mrs. Laura Duffy and Mrs. Hattie Nowling. About 20 participated.

A nice lunch was served, the hostess being assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Sullivan and a granddaughter, Miss Garrity. The next regular meeting will be held in the Legion Home, Tuesday, November 3, with business only, the main feature.

Return To Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Feltz from Hot Springs, National Park, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Locke of Chicago have concluded a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neighbors and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheppard of this city.

Mrs. Feltz is the sister of Mr. Neighbors, and Mrs. Sheppard and Mrs. Locke are daughters of the Feltz.

Committee consists of Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, Mrs. Ben Zeisel, Mrs. Harry Botwin, Mrs. Nannette Linville and Mrs. Gordon Stone. They have expended every effort to make the frolic successful and it is sure to attract a big crowd.

LADIES ASSOCIATION
LUNCHEON-MEETING

Monthly luncheon and regular meeting of the Ladies Association of the First U. P. church will be held on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. A. H. McBride on Carlisle street.

Assistant hostesses are Mrs. Raymond McBride and Mrs. M. R. Neighbors. Mrs. Harvey Robinson will conduct the afternoon's program.

STATE PRESIDENT HERE ON THURSDAY

MRS. JOHN M. PHILLIPS

Clubwomen of Lawrence county are eagerly anticipating the visit to New Castle of Mrs. John M. Phillips, state president of the Federation of Women in Pennsylvania, Thursday evening, October 22, at the Highland U. P. church.

Mrs. Phillips is coming here under the auspices of the Junior Federated groups, the Junior Woman's club, Federation Juniors, Junior Reading Circle and the Sub-Juniors who will be hostesses for the evening.

Representatives of the various groups serving as ushers include: Georgiana McNeese, Junior Woman's club; Eleanor McGill, Junior Reading Circle; Sara McGowan, Junior Federation; Iva Mayberry and Dorothy Millinger, Sub-Juniors.

The topic upon which Mrs. Phillips will speak is "Hold Fast to That Which Is Good," a message packed full of inspiration, particularly appropriate at the beginning of the new club season.

The speaker is charming, brilliant, active and motherly and everyone who has ever heard her, considers it a privilege to be in her audience a rare opportunity. She has a vivid personality.

It is expected that a large number of older clubwomen as well as a representative number of the younger women will turn out for her talk on Thursday evening. The hour is 8 o'clock.

TEMPLE ISRAEL
FROLIC THURSDAY

Members of Temple Israel and their friends are anticipating a Halloween frolic which will be packed full of surprises.

The affair will take place Thursday evening at 8:30 in the synagogue. Goblins and fun will reign in true Halloween spirit and a good time is promised those who attend.

Everyone is welcome.

Committee consists of Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, Mrs. Ben Zeisel, Mrs. Harry Botwin, Mrs. Nannette Linville and Mrs. Gordon Stone. They have expended every effort to make the frolic successful and it is sure to attract a big crowd.

N. H. B. KENSINGTON PLANS FOR HALLOWE'EN

Mrs. Elmer Brown of Highland avenue was hostess to the N. H. B. Kensington Tuesday with conversation and sewing filling in the hours.

Plans were discussed for a Halloween party on October 30, which comprised the main part of the business proceedings.

This event will be in the form of a masquerade, with husbands and families as special guests. Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand will open her home at 1101 Delaware avenue for this occasion, and the committee in charge follows: Mrs. Clyde Griffith, chairman; Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand, Mrs. Ed McKibben, Mrs. H. T. Cooper and Mrs. J. D. Reebie.

After serving a tempting lunch, the guests planned their next regular assembly for Tuesday, November 3, with Mrs. Louis Garratt, Scott street.

SERENADERS HONOR BRIDE AND GROOM

Accompanied by a long caravan of automobiles, a recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Bair, Jr. (nee Betty Louise Keely), were taken for a ride in a big truck over North Beaver township Tuesday evening.

The serenaders, numerous in numbers as the crowd was composed of young and old alike bent on giving the newlyweds hilarious entertainment, went to the young couple's home early in the evening. Loaded on the big conveyance, the guests of honor took the merriment in high spirits and enjoyed the friendly gesture immensely.

Other affairs of a social nature are being planned for the pleasure of the bride and groom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kelley, of Mt. Jackson road, and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bair, also of the Mt. Jackson road.

Their marriage took place October 16 in Wellsburg, W. Va.

GET OUT THE VOTE!

THE immense increase throughout the country in registration for next month's election, out of proportion to the estimated net gain in population, is being variously interpreted.

Apart from partisan considerations, the indicated total registration of between 50,000,000 and 52,000,000 this year is regarded by Simon Michelet, who has been collating and analyzing such statistics for many years, as a sign that "we are becoming vote-conscious." But here again verification of his opinion will have to wait the counting of the votes, for he estimates that about 42,500,000 will be the sum total cast.

There is always a natural disparity between the registration and the actual voting, but should there be a difference of 7,000,000 or 8,000,000 it would suggest that the people are not so vote-conscious after all. Just two weeks remain, not only for the speeches by the opposing candidates but for determined, concerted efforts to get out the vote.

Many persons, regardless of their nominal party affiliations, have not yet fully decided how they will vote. Many others, although registered, will be inclined to let their civic duty slide on election day for one or another reason—or excuse. Failure to vote, this year, in view of the superlative importance of the issues, is an indefensible affront to citizenship.

HALLOWE'EN VANDALISM

Now that legislation protects the fingers, eyes and lives of children from the dangerous Fourth of July celebrations of other days, how about some home made legislation to protect the shrubs, bird baths, screens and automobiles of citizens from the same children during the week preceding Halloween?

Time was when Halloween was observed the one evening. Grotesque costumes, pumpkins, corn stalks, cider and doughnuts and false faces characterized parties given for young people most often, and some times for their elders. Occasionally a wagon was pushed to the roof of a shed, tick-tacks were put on windows, ghostly figures wrapped in sheets stalked abroad, and strings tied to cans were stretched across the sidewalks to startle pedestrians.

But look at the children now! Soap smeared on the finish of automobiles, electric light bulbs stolen from outside lights, garden hose cut or dragged away, bird baths tipped over and broken, milk bottles broken and thrown into the street, lawns trampled, shrubs pulled up—all vandalism of the most exasperating sort in the name of a holiday. And it continues for a week.

Where are their parents? Obviously the police can not cope with the nuisance—not even one to every block could stop it. It is the parents' duty. They should stop it, or at least see to it that their children confine their so-called fun to their own back yards.

ANOTHER UTOPIAN FAILURE

Premier William Aberhart of Alberta is discovering that his new-fangled schemes for conjuring prosperity out of the depression had may look well on paper, but they simply won't work. He rode into office almost a year ago on the promise that he would inaugurate a social credit plan whereby every citizen of Alberta would receive a gratuitous monthly income of $25. This was a most excellent plan to defeat the depression, the only hitch being to find the money to pay the gratuity. As yet nothing has been done, although vague hints are dropped now and then that the plan is just about to go into effect. Few persons in Alberta, except Aberhart himself, expect that it will ever see light and probably he is not so certain now.

But he did launch one fiscal experiment two months ago which was designed to relieve unemployment. It was an issue of "prosperity certificates," and we are now informed that this venture in scrip has met with failure and will probably be abandoned. The scheme called for the issuance of certificates in $1 denomination, which resembles a Canadian dollar bill in size and on one side, but on the other are 104 small squares. Into each such square a one-cent stamp was to be placed by the holder each Wednesday. At the end of 104 weeks, or two years, the certificate was to be redeemable by the government for $1 in cash. Thus the government made a profit, more "money" was placed in circulation without actual inflation and prosperity was in sight.

It was a beautiful idea, but somehow the Albertans didn't think much of it. In all, $236,000 in "prosperity certificates" was issued by Aberhart, but only $86,000 remains in circulation today, except $10,000 which have been appropriated by souvenir hunters. All the rest were hurriedly turned in for redemption when Aberhart made the offer in an effort to allay fear that they would not be redeemed at the end of the two year period. Thus the Canadians manifested clearly that they have faith neither in Aberhart nor his fantastic plan, and he has indicated that a contemplated issue of $264,000 to bring the total to $500,000 will be "held in abeyance."

24,720 Miles in 18 Days.

Some Ladies' Hats.

Gen. Butler's Peace Plan.

Some Gods Dislike Music.

By ARTHUR BISHOP.

H. R. EKINS, first-class newspaper man, has gone around the globe by airplane, covering 24,720 miles in 18 days 14 hours 56 minutes. Such a trip seems wonderfully fast now. Soon it will seem wonderfully slow.

Air progress is rapid. Because it was done scientifically, by machinery, the 18-day trip seems less romantic than the Nellie Bly 70-odd day trip that beat Jules Verne's "Around the World in 80 Days." Nellie Bly, clever newspaper woman, knew how to make it interesting, going out of her way to travel by elephant, camel, jinrickshaws, etc., flying around the world costs about $5,000.

FLYING ACROSS oceans and continents has already become a matter of course. A paragraph was printed here about Major Gardiner, who flew from New York to Moscow, 5,000 miles, in 68 hours 52 minutes of flying time.

Frank Schroth, editor and publisher of the Scranton Republican, has recently returned from a similar New York to Moscow trip made in 57 flying hours, 12 hours less than Maj. Gardiner's flying time. Mr. Schroth says:

"It depends on the planes you catch, not on yourself. I was fortunate in making the record-breaking Hindenburg 42-hour trip as part of my journey." Around the world about as fast as the sun seems to go will come eventually. From Chicago around the world and back to Chicago in five days will come soon.

SOME DAY woman, let us hope, will balance her fashion budget, decide just what she wants to wear, and then wear it, as men have done, but the day is far away. These are some of the hats from which your wife, daughter, sister will choose this season:

Hats shaped like East Indian war-shields, hats heavy in gold embroidery, flat pill-box turbans, gold braided; Russian style hats off the face, with tall tiara fronts, hats of Persian lamb and embroidered felt, small toques, dipped down front and back covered with soft feathers, "the military touch predominating."

WHY do you suppose women take so much trouble to spoil faces and heads naturally beautiful? It cannot all be the fault of hat-makers.

THE OPPOSITE OF "MOOCH"

MOOCHERS ARE deservedly unpopular. They are people who haven't heard about the doctrine of "give and take," or have decided that only half of it fits them. They take but they don't give. And they figure that this puts them just that much ahead of the poor idiots who don't play the game that way.

A mooch will ask you for a cigarette when he has a full pack of his own. He'll borrow a dollar and put it in his savings account. (That isn't just fancy: I know a man who used to do that.) He'll borrow your car and bring it back with the gas tank empty. . . . He has heard somewhere that it is more blessed to give than to receive and he is generously willing for you to have your full share of the blessings of this life. . . . I don't like moochers. You don't either. Sometimes I think that even the moocher doesn't really like himself. . . . Let's not talk about him any more. He's not a pleasant subject and he's probably inescapable.

But there are also some very fine human beings who are the exact opposite of the mooch and they aren't perfect, either. They know about giving and taking, too, but they concentrate on the giving and decline to take. . . . They are stiff-necked and proud, and will accept nothing. Their slogan is, "I hate to be under obligations to anybody!"

And if they ever do accept anything from a friend, they pay him back so swiftly that it isn't funny. They are so prompt that they sometimes hurt their friends' feelings. Because a true friend LIKES to do something for you. He wants to feel that he is helpful that you and he share obligations and gladly give and graciously receive.

The moocher wrecks every friendship on the shoals of his selfishness. But the man who hates to be under obligations also spoils a few friendships. Every human being should know how to give easily, but there should also be a technique about receiving. It comes naturally to some (I don't have any trouble). It should be acquired by everybody. . . . But don't go into it too intensely, because the line between generous receiving and miserable mooching is a narrow one—and easy to step over.

THE TEACHER
Dear Teacher, patient with our children's ways,
Teach us the common things of common days.
While careless hands the dog-eared pages turn,
Teach us the easy things, so hard to learn—
The Truth—that needs no learning to declare;
Pure, white-souled Truth, than noon day sun more fair.

And Faith—that midst all fears and woes,
Sings to the children's lips: "Well, Teacher knows!"
And Love—that hath ten million times been told;
Love that is older than the world is old.

Love—that will live when all the worlds are dead,
When these great little lessons have been said.

The World At A Glance

Johnson Is Impeached.
Congress Fails To Convict.
Alaska Is Purchased By Seward.

By LESLIE EICHEL

Central Press Staff Writer

PRESIDENT ANDREW JOHNSON'S bitter fight with congress over post-civil war reconstruction laws, for the south, continued without cessation until the election of November, 1868.

Congress, under its dominant Republican leadership, humiliated the president in every possible manner. It invested General Grant, as head of the armed forces, with power independent of the president's—in direct violation of the constitution. It deprived the president of the power of removal of officeholders from office except with the advice and consent of the senate. It gave cabinet officers a fixed tenure of four years; they could be dismissed within that tenure only by the consent of the senate.

No other president ever had suffered such a restraint on his power. President Johnson had retained President Lincoln's cabinet, even though Lincoln had mistrusted some of these men and had, with difficulty, kept them in check.

Edwin M. Stanton, secretary of war, turned upon the president, sided with the congressional leaders in their quarrels with the chief executive, and defied the president to remove him. But the president did remove Stanton—or try to. Stanton refused to resign. The president then suspended him, and put General Grant into his place. The senate refused to recognize the removal. Stanton resumed office. The president once more issued an order for his removal. Stanton refused to quit, and appended to the house of representatives for protection.

Whereupon, Feb. 24, 1868, the house of representatives voted to impeach the president for "high crimes and misdemeanors."

IMPEACHMENT COLLAPSES

The impeachment proceedings were a sorry spectacle.

As Woodrow Wilson explains in his "A History of the American People":

"President Johnson's only offenses were that he had added to his vetoes unmeasured abuse of the houses and their leaders and that he had disregarded an act of congress in his removal of Mr. Stanton."

"But the impeachment had been resolved upon as a political, not a judicial, process of removal, in passion, not in cool judgment—in the spirit of the men who, in Mr. Jefferson's day, had sought to make it a means of party mastery against the judges of the federal courts."

"From the fifth of March to the sixteenth of May the unedifying trial dragged on. Even while it pended the president went incorrigibly up and down the country speaking with his accustomed ungoverned passion and open defiance of every one concerned against him in the long series of controversies which had brought the trial on. Fortunately there were men among the Republicans of the senate who put their consciences as lawyers and their scruples as statesmen before their allegiance to their party leaders. On the sixteenth of May the impeachment broke down. The first vote was taken. Seven Republican senators voted with 10 Democrats of the upper house against the 35 Republican senators who cast their vote for conviction."

The necessary two-thirds vote could not be obtained. Secretary Stanton resigned.

GRANT NOMINATED

General U. S. Grant was nominated for the presidency by the Republicans in convention in Chicago. The Democrats nominated a man of noteable nativities—John S. Lee Strachey, b. 1901. British editor and political economist. . . . William E. Dodd, b. 1869, American ambassador to Germany. . . . Pay Webb, b. 1907, headline ex-wife of Rudy Vallee.

Today's Yesterdays—Oct. 21, 1866—Henry Knox died at Thomaston, Maine, aged 86 as a result of having swallowed a chicken bone, after having carved a place in history as first chief of artillery of the army and the fat, good-natured aide who was George Washington's closest friend.

Oct. 21, 1808—Samuel Francis Smith was born in Boston. He was a Baptist theological student, when in half an hour he wrote the eight verses of "America," to fit music he found in a German song book. The music, of course, is also that of "God Save the King." The same day, he wrote another popular hymn, "The Morning Light is Breaking."

Oct. 21, 1833—Alfred Nobel was born in Stockholm, Sweden, where, when he was 34, he discovered by accident how to make dynamite.

He was already a veteran chemist then, having started cooking up formulas in a home laboratory when he was 16.

The invention of dynamite cheapened iron, lead, copper and zinc so that industry began to use them to new advantage. Blasting under water was unknown until Nobel invented the detonator. He became the greatest manufacturer of explosives and war materials, and his fortune grew into one of the largest in the world. It did not make him happy.

When he died 40 years ago this year he left the millions he had made out of war, to the promotion of peace!

Oct. 21 in State Histories: 1585—Juan de Onate was sent out to col-equally high standing, but not, of course, a military hero—Horatio Seymour of New York.

The election never was in doubt. Yet the vote was close. In a total of 5,700,000 votes, General Grant obtained a majority of merely a little more than 300,000. His votes, however, were so well distributed that he obtained 214 electoral votes, against Seymour's 80.

Seymour carried populous New York and New Jersey. The southern states, then under Negro domination, went solidly for Grant. Some years later the Republicans were to regret their efforts to control the south through Negro votes. Southerners were to obtain suffrage again and unite, at the ballot box, in a "solid south" for the Democrats.

ALASKA BOUGHT

One cannot draw the curtain on the Johnson administration without making note of an important event that occurred during its troubled years.

Russia withdrew entirely from the Pacific coast of North America by selling Alaska to the United States for $7,200,000 in gold. Secretary of State William H. Seward—one of the greatest statesmen America ever has known—agreed upon a treaty with the Russian minister in Washington on March 30, 1867. The treaty was ratified by the U. S. senate in May, and formal transfer was effected in October.

In the meantime, the Mexicans had driven the French from Mexico, executing Emperor Maximilian, whom Napoleon III had sent over to rule. Thus all foreign power passed from the North American continent except that of the British in Canada. And Seward even had to settle all differences with the British, who had not been at all friendly during the Civil war.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EDUCATION

The education provided by the schools, colleges and universities of America today are very different from that of three generations ago. In the public schools they don't seem to stress as they used to the "Three R's" they don't teach the children to memorize. They spend vast sums of money for Stadiums and athletic fields and pay the instructors in athletics more than they do any other teacher or professor in the schools.

Naturally, the teachers and professors are not business men and they get carried away with socialistic ideas, and the schools are accused of teaching plain communism. Perhaps, in some instances it is done, but for the most part of it more socialistic than communistic, and each is bad. It doesn't do the children and the young men and women in the higher institutions of learning any good. This sort of education works pretty badly some times for a boy that had just finished High school and to me this summer, when I asked him what kind of work he was doing.

"Work?" For what do I want to work, when I can get a dole?" Another boy who had finished his college course, said: "Why should I fight for a flag? What would I be fighting for? I might just as well

Other Reports Of Minor Accidents

Automobiles driven by George B. Jobson, Baltimore, and D. W. Ault, New Galilee, were in an accident at North Liberty and Cherry streets at 1 p. m. Tuesday. Slight damage was caused.

The car of Robert Vaughn, 908 Wilmington avenue, was damaged to the amount of $100.00 in an accident at Highland avenue school at 1:45 p. m. yesterday. According to Vaughn, he was driving his auto south on Highland avenue when a school child ran from Boyles field upon the sidewalk. A teacher blew a whistle and Vaughn glanced toward the child and his car struck a truck which stopped in front of his machine.

The cars of Dan Shaffer, Butler avenue, and Mary E. Forbes, 335 East Washington street, were damaged slightly in a collision at West Washington street and Atlantic avenue at 2:45 p. m. Tuesday.

Rate Reduction
Plan Protested

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Four competing railroads were lined up solidly today against the Baltimore & Ohio's plan to reduce coal-hauling rates from the fertile West Virginia Panhandle district to Ohio.

William A. Disque, interstate commerce commission examiner, opened hearings on the B. & O. proposal, which would drop rates five cents a ton from the Panhandle to Akron, and ten cents a ton to Cleveland.

Maintaining the reduction of rates would upset the competitive situation which has existed between the Panhandle and other coal fields for many years, the plan was opposed by the Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, New York Central and Pittsburgh & West Virginia railroads.

A similar petition will be presented by the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad after the present hearing is concluded.

Panel Discussion
Has Peace Theme

National Defense To Be Discussed At Westminster
Thursday Night

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 21.—A panel discussion on the topic, "Is National Defense a Way to Peace?" will be sponsored by the New Wilmington branch of the AAUW in the Westminster college chapel Thursday night. The speakers will be New Castle men, Rabbi Norman H. Diamond, instructor in Hebrew at Westminster, and Dr. Arthur Foster, member of the reserve officers training corps and oculist.

Following the panel discussion between the two men, the meeting will be thrown open to the public, with Dr. Mary Purdy, English department head, acting as chairman.

Supplementing the panel discussion, an AAUW display called "Consumers of Ideas," brought from California, will show the effects of propaganda, will be exhibited.

The New Wilmington AAUW is under the presidency of Miss Florence White, department of romance languages, recently elected second divisional vice president of the organization.

There is little class feeling in small towns. The rich are smart enough to act poor to keep the good will of their customers.

MRS. G. G. ORR IS HOSTESS LAST NIGHT

The M. C. Missionary Society of the Third United Presbyterian church gathered at the lovely home of Mrs. G. G. Orr, Hillcrest avenue, Tuesday evening and had a very interesting program.

Mrs. Floyd Moore was in charge of the worship period. The topic of the program which followed was "Sabbath Day Observance" and was in charge of Mrs. A. B. Coulter, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Rupert. Reports from the convention of the Presbyterian were given by Mrs. Arthur Minnick and Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Chester Minnick, a guest of the society, and a delegate to the women's general missionary convention at St. Louis, brought an interesting and splendid report.

Mrs. Clara Lutz and Mrs. Ed. Book offered a lovely vocal duet, "I Love Jesus." The business meeting followed with Mrs. C. C. McKibben in charge, and complete reports were heard from all committees. Mrs. Arthur Minnick, chairman of finance, stated that $45.35 had been realized from a recent project. Further plans for the tea in November to honor Rev. James Brown, a missionary of the Third U. P. church to India, were talked over. Rev. Brown is to preach the thank-offering sermon on November 15 at the church. The J. C. Society voted to give $25 toward his support.

Two new members, Mrs. Jared Davies and Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, were present. Special guests included Rev. and Mrs. Chester T. Yeates, Mrs. Laughlin and Miss Simmons, mother and aunt of Mrs. Yeates, from Belle Center, O., Mrs. Martin and Mr. Orr. Tea was served by the hostess; Mrs. Mattie Badger and Mrs. Mary Caldwell served.

On November 17 Mrs. C. C. McKibben expects to entertain the society at her Maryland avenue home and Mrs. Floyd Moore will have charge of the program.

In New York City Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Preston, of Lincoln avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Quincy McBride, of Hazelcroft avenue, are in New York City, registered at the Barbizon-Plaza.

C. K. McGEORGE CLASS ENJOYS MASQUERADE

The regular monthly meeting for the C. K. McGeorge Bible class of the Second U. P. church, resulted in a most successful masquerade party on Tuesday evening. The social committee in charge of the affair, composed of Mrs. Rilla Patton, Mrs. Paul Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hutton and Mr. and Mrs. William Patton.

A round of entertaining games and musical features, filled in the hours, with Mrs. Ruth Hanna and Mrs. Edith Strittmatter receiving prizes. The award for the most original costume was given to Meade Thompson.

An appetizing Hallowe'en lunch was served as a later feature, with appointments being carried out in orange and black. A short business discussion was conducted during the evening.

November 17, the class will meet in regular session, the place to be announced.

BRIDES HONORED AT CLASS GATHERING

Two recent brides, Mrs. Harry Alford and Mrs. L. H. Kelly, were honored by members of the Margaret Shilde class of the First M. E. church on Monday evening, when they met at the latter's home on Fairmont avenue, who entertained at their regular assembly. Both brides were agreeably surprised with the lovely remembrances presented them.

After the serving of a dainty collation at an attractively appointed table, they planned their next meeting for November 16. Miss Alice Warner of Wallace avenue will be hostess on this date.

Le Bon Temps Club.

Le Bon Temps club members were delightfully entertained in the home of Merilynne Blank, North Walnut street, Tuesday evening. Bridge tables occupied attention during the early hours, trophies falling to Sally Lou Parker and Martha Mae Shaffer.

In serving lunch, the hostess was aided by her mother, Mrs. Robert Blank, and Marian Francis. The latter will receive members at her home on Tuesday, November 3.

1919 Kensington

Mrs. E. G. Hoover of Winter avenue welcomed the 1919 Kensington members to her home Tuesday evening. Bingo and chat were enjoyed. Prizes for the games went to Mrs. M. J. Young and Mrs. Charles Covert.

A tasty Hallowe'en lunch was served by the hostess.

In two weeks Mrs. David Valensi of Lincoln avenue, will entertain.

MRS. MONTGOMERY COMING FOR WEDDING

The Montgomerys of Philadelphia, the former Josephine McGoun, will arrive in the city Thursday for a ten day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. McGoun, of Moody avenue.

Mrs. Montgomery will be here for the wedding and incidental pre-nuptial festivities of her brother, Samuel H. McGoun, Jr., to Miss Margaret Blackmore, of Butler.

The wedding will take place next Tuesday, October 27. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Blackmore, of Butler. The wedding will be a brilliant social event for New Castle and Butler people.

Johnson-Hilton Wedding

As a surprise to their host of friends comes the announcement of the marriage of Anne Elaine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson, of 820 Frank avenue, to Edward Eugene Hilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hilton, Chestnut street.

The wedding was solemnized with the single ring ceremony at nine p. m. January 22, 1936, in the home of Rev. Ivan J. Howland, New Cumberland, W. Va.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fabian of New Castle, close friends of the couple.

The bride is a graduate of New Castle high school class of '31. Both she and Mr. Hilton are well known in this city and have a wide circle of friends. They will make their home here.

Card Party Tonight

The Cathedral will be the center of attraction this evening, for several hundred New Castle people as there are several affairs of a social nature scheduled there at 8 o'clock.

Among these is the card party which will be sponsored in the West dining room by members of New Castle chapter 105 O. E. S. All arrangements have been completed by Mrs. Eurouth Headland and her committee in charge of this particular affair, to take care of a goodly number of people, including members and friends.

For their pleasure, card tables will be arranged for contract, auction, 500 and bingo. Refreshments will conclude the evening.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. Ben Ciccone of East Long avenue entertained a group of friends at her home recently in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her daughter Benedetta.

Games were the popular pastimes. Prizes were awarded to Junior Bethel, Sam Ciccone, Nicholas Maciarello, Gino Gennoch and Julia Ann Sbarro. Pauline and Bertha Sbarro assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. The honored guest received a number of useful gifts.

I. V. D. Class Quits

Tuesday evening the I. V. D. class members of the First Christian church gathered in the church parlor for their regular meeting, the evening being spent quilting.

Ten members were present and social chat with the making of quilt tops formed the diversions of the evening. The next meeting of the class will be on Tuesday evening, October 27, in the church.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP NO. 3
The regular meeting of the Girl Scouts of Troop 3 was conducted in the First Christian church on Thursday, October 15.

After playing a few games the girls went to patrol corners. Following this a signaling class was conducted for the older girls while the younger ones went for a walk.

The evening ended with a surprise party to celebrate the tenth birthday of Clara Cartwright. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Montgomery, and the captain, Mildred Miller, assisted by some of the girls. Clara was a recipient of many lovely gifts.

Scribe, Marjorie Harris.

TROOP NO. 2
The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2 met last Wednesday evening at Highland school with their leader, Ione Farver, in charge. A game was played called "Circle Stride." Miss Angelina Castrucci was present to make an announcement. The girls then divided into groups—judging, under Miss Farver, signalling, under Miss Lois Porter, and health—winner, under Mrs. Wilkins.

The girls had patrol corners and Katherine Johnson gave a reading, "Her Part in the Play," much to the enjoyment of all the scouts. The meeting was closed with good night circle and a court of honor took place afterward. The next meeting will be tonight.

Scribe, Natalie Ehrlich.

TROOP NO. 1
The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1 met at the North street school on Thursday evening. They played games and sang songs. Table setting and five points of health were passed by some of the girls; the rest had reviewing. They all formed a friendship circle and closed the meeting with singing and taps.

Scribe, Doris Boalick.

TROOP NO. 6
A bean bag game opened the meeting of Troop No. 6 in Ors hall on Saturday morning. Patrol corners and work period followed. Diana Elder and Nancy Gilliland were admitted to the troop. At the end of the meeting taps was sung. A short court of honor followed.

Scribe, Mary L. Meehan.

JUANITA TROOP
Troop No. 14 had a regular meeting on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Games were used to open the meeting, followed by patrol corners in which attendance was checked and dues collected and plans for a taffy party were made by Patrol No. 1.

A Halloween party will be conducted on Thursday of this week. Songs entitled "America the Beautiful," "Pop-pop-patch," "Shorten Bread," "After Dark," and "Run Along Home" were sung during the evening. Catherine Kelly was welcomed into the troop as a new member. Taps concluded the meeting.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Campaign Cost Brought To Fore

Suggestion Made That Government Bear Expense Of Future Campaigns

LEGITIMATE COST HARD TO DEFINE

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Chairman Augustine Lonergan of the senate's committee on investigation of campaign expenditures in proposing that the government pay both sides' expenses in future election fights suggests what it has long been recognized would be a good plan if it could be made to work fairly. The idea is a new one. Someone has put it forward in connection with every presidential or congressional campaign in recent years.

When, however, an attempt has been made to lick it into shape for practical application it invariably has been found that a problem presents itself which lawmakers never yet have been able to solve. The thought is that governmental financing of campaigns would eliminate corruption and place a candidate of small means on an equality with a rich one. In theory this is all right but in practice a rich candidate can spend a deal of money in ways which are certain to promote his political chances without exactly classifying as campaign spending. To offset such expenditures a relatively impecunious candidate now can solicit contributions from friendly sources, thus matching his rival's fund. If he were denied the right to do so but must content himself with the governmental allowance the richer contender would have the benefit of a similar allowance and besides could spend bales of his own cash in effective fashion, but not in a way to enable any tribunal to say definitely that he had so used it as to win votes. Thus the poor man, instead of being granted equality, would be outright discriminated against. The rich man might have to be a trifle careful, that is all.

ANOTHER MEANS

Critics of the scheme also raise the point that the party in power might find methods of being more generous with government dollars toward candidates of its own political faith. In short, rather than ending electoral corruption, these critics argue that the system would be at least a temptation to the government to use its advantage to keep the out by even more objectionable means than any involved in private contributions to campaign funds.

Publicity concerning private contributions of course is essential but that is provided for already. Not that it is altogether effective. As previously remarked it frequently is difficult to determine what is a campaign expenditure and what isn't.

Undoubtedly large sums are spent really to make votes which are not listed as campaign expenses on the ground that they were not spent for any such thing.

"OVERDOING" IT

Occasionally a candidate overdoes himself as in the case of the late William S. Vare of Pennsylvania. The senate refused him a seat in the senate. There probably are plenty of other cases which get by. The present system isn't perfect but the governmental plan would be still less so in the opinion of most politicians—honest ones—who have given it mature consideration, which may be. Senator Lonergan has not done yet. He says he doesn't expect to do so do the remainder but just how to correct them they haven't figured out thus far.

Junior Chamber Will Aid In Convention

The Junior Chamber of Commerce tomorrow will distribute "Welcome Teachers" signs to downtown merchants in preparation for the coming hundreds of school teachers for the Mid-Western division convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Association Friday and Saturday.

A representative of the junior chamber, carrying credentials of the Retail Merchants' division of the Chamber of Commerce will call on business houses.

BLACKHEADS
PREVENTED WITH OXYGEN CREAM
Thousands of women, who used to be miserable over a skin of complexions, coarse pores and blackheads, now have a beautiful complexion after using OXYGEN CREAM—free the skin pores from dirt and other impurities. It keeps the skin looking fresh and full of life. Prevents many blemishes, blotches and blackheads. Refines coarse pores. Brings softness to rough skin. 5¢ jar of OXYGEN CREAM will convince you. Approved by Good Housekeeping. Not drying. At drug and department stores.

Penn State To Be Host To Engineers Friday, Saturday

STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 21.—Men interested in engineering education in five institutions will visit the campus of the Pennsylvania State college Friday and Saturday for a meeting of the Allegheny section of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education.

R. E. Doherty, president of Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, and H. P. Hammond of Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, president of the S. P. E. E., are among the speakers who will address the 60 or 70 engineers and educators expected to attend.

A session Friday afternoon, with "The Evaluation of Engineering Education and Students of Engineering" as its theme, will lead off the program after a short business meeting. Dean Robert L. Sackett of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college will preside. A dinner Friday evening and conferences and inspection trips Saturday morning will conclude the program. Institutions included in the Allegheny section of the S. P. E. E. are: Bucknell university, Lewisburg; Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh; the Pennsylvania State college, the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh; University of West Virginia, Morgantown, and Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company, Pittsburgh.

Teachers Of Grove City Schools Take Part In Convention

Dean Calderwood Of Grove City College Is President Of Convention

GROVE CITY, Oct. 21.—Teachers in the local schools, and graduates of Grove City College on the faculty of district schools, will be active in the program of the mid-western convention, Pennsylvania State Education Association, to be held in New Castle, Oct. 23-24. Dr. A. J. Calderwood, dean of men at Grove City College, is president of the Mid-Western Convention District, and will preside at several of the general sessions. R. G. Walters, also of Grove City College, is president of the Department of College Instructors, and will be in charge of the group meeting. Hubert Jack, of the local high school faculty, is chairman of the Health Education section. G. H. Crowther of this city is secretary of the department of High School Principals. At the general session Friday afternoon, Miss Virginia Perrine of the high school faculty will present the contribution of the Commercial Curriculum. Many other local graduates will appear on programs at the various sessions.

GROVE CITY SINGERS ATTEND REHEARSAL

GROVE CITY, Oct. 21.—Twelve singers from the local high school have been selected for the Northwestern District Chorus, and made their first appearance Monday evening at a rehearsal in New Castle. They are: Delores Williamson, Virginia McGarr, Janice Whitesell, Anna Mary Fleck, Johanna Poehlman, Mildred Lester, Janet Baird, Tom White, George McGinty, Laverne Gills, David Easterbrook and Wayne Book.

The District Chorus is composed of selected singers from all the high schools of Northwestern Pennsylvania. The organization meets Monday and Friday evening for rehearsal.

On Court House Hill

Naturalization court for second papers will be held here on November 23 and 24. Indications are that there will be a large class. Many applications are being received for first papers.

Clair C. Moes, a Pittsburgh attorney, was admitted to practice here to assist in the case of Mike Piskorz against Louis C. Mather, which was tried before Judge W. Walter Braham.

County commissioners who visited the State Line road, over which there is so much controversy as to the width, found that only one man along a distance of seven miles, is raising any objection to the width. It is believed that the matter will be amicably settled.

For the convenience of sportsmen County Treasurer Joseph H. Harland, has given certain aldermen and justices of the peace, who have applied, the privilege of issuing hunting licenses. Persons who are expecting to take out licenses are urged to get them at once and not wait until the season opens.

County commissioners are getting the bridges over which they have control in shape for the approaching winter. Most of the larger bridges are now kept up by the state department. It is expected that the West Washington street bridge will be completed within the next ten days.

With the coming of the hunting season the state game commission is issuing warnings and advice. Three of the regulations urged read like this: "Always wear red, and plenty of it; do not mix firearms with firewater, and never carry loaded guns in automobiles."

The case of John Wasilewski against the County of Lawrence, is expected to come up at the present term of court. Wasilewski is suing the county for a meat bill for meat ordered by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard with which to feed the prisoners in the county jail. The county commissioners refused to pay the bill, claiming that there was too much ham and other high priced meat on the bill of fare. Sheriff Pritchard claims that he has the right to say what kind of meat is ordered, and that under his system of using the ham it was no more expensive than other meats.

Registration Clerk Thomas Edmunds and assistants are now busy preparing duplicates of the recent

Under the will of the late Mary Etta Lowery, who died at Bryn Mawr, Pa., a copy of which has been probated here, a nephew, C. Wilbur McCullough, is left $100. Gifts of personal property are made to a daughter-in-law, Anna J. Lowery; a granddaughter, Shirley Ann Lowery; a cousin, Maud McCullough, and a sister-in-law, Anna J. Brest. The remainder of the estate is left to decedent's son, Robert Paul Lowery, who is also named as executor.

Request that John Jones, assistant to the city electrician, leave the city service November 1, was the first request made of a city employee in several months. Jones was employed during the administration of former Councilman David O. Davies. He has been paid a laborer's rate or 40 cents an hour.

Council has discussed a proposal of spending several thousand dollars for equipment to simplify the keeping of records in the city treasurer's office. Should this be done an addressograph and other equipment will be secured which will eliminate probably the employment of extra clerks at various times during the year. No purchase, if decided upon, will be made until next year. However, it is known that representatives of the county commissioners, city council and the city and county controllers recently went to Erie and inspected the system.

Thank Goodness, the campaign will soon be over. Then we can discuss national needs without seeming to knock anybody.

Gerson Has 'Credit' As Luncheon Topic

Jeweler Heard By Lions; Club Group Shares War-ren Program

Jack Gerson, owner of Gerson jewelry stores in New Castle, Ellwood City and Sharon, discussed "Credit" in the luncheon address he gave before the weekly meeting of the Lions club yesterday. Mr. Gerson is a member of the club.

The Lions welcomed a new member, Charles T. Hudson. Present as a guest was Frank Knisley, Beaver Falls, regional director of the Lions clubs in this section.

At Warren, O., last night a delegation of New Castle Lions joined with 200 other Lions of eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania in a dinner honoring their international president, Edwin R. Kingsley, of Parkersburg, W. Va. The affair was sponsored by the Warren club. New Castle's group sponsored a special musical act as their contribution to the program.

The New Castle Lions are planning a Halloween party at New Wilmington on the night of Tuesday, Oct. 27. The program that evening will get under way at 8:30.

PULASKI

MISSIONARY MEETING

One of the pleasant events of last week was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McClenahan on Wednesday, when the members of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met for an all-day meeting. At noon an elaborate dinner was enjoyed at an attractively arranged table. Fall flowers formed the centerpiece. Following dinner a business meeting was held with Mrs. McClenahan and Mrs. Lyle Nottingham in charge. Special guests for dinner were Rev. and Mrs. Luther Macdonald and little daughter, Mrs. J. F. Myers, and C. C. Boyd. The day was spent in a social way and piecing quilt patches was the principal diversion.

ATTEND PARTY

Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Minnie Todd, Mrs. James Todd and daughter, Irene, Mrs. A. W. Graham, Mrs. Ossie Headings and Mrs. Merle Headings attended a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Rodgers' mother, Mrs. Kellar, of New Castle, on Thursday. At noon a fine chicken dinner was served and a very enjoyable day was spent.

AID SOCIETY ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell and Miss Evelyn Grell entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Mitchell on Thursday evening. A business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. James Black, presiding, after which a social evening was enjoyed, twenty being present. The rooms were attractively decorated in Halloween colors and decorations. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Charles Clark, which was carried out in keeping with the Halloween season. Games were enjoyed and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Roy C. Bilger and Mrs. Ralph Godard. The social committee for November is: Mrs. A. W. Graham, Mrs. Ossie Headings and Mrs. Uriah Hoskins.

PULASKI NOTES

Girl Dies From Burns In Bonfire

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 21—

Mary Lesicko, 8, of 924 Berkley avenue, died Tuesday at St. Elizabeth's hospital from burns suffered when her clothes were ignited as she played near a bonfire.

A flame from head to foot, the girl ran screaming to her home, where her father, working in the back yard, caught her, ripped the clothes from her and rushed her to the hospital.

Most troubles are caused by the shortness of life. When wars and booms threaten, the generation that learned to fear them is gone.

Strike Fails To Materialize

President Of Flat Glass Workers Of America Rescinds Order To Strike

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Tension was temporarily relieved here today when Glenn S. McCabe, president of the Federation of Flat Glass Workers of America, rescinded an order which would have sent approximately 7,000 employees of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company out on strike this morning.

McCabe, who threatened the walkout following failure of the glass company to agree to recognize his union as sole bargaining agent for workers at its Barberton, O., plant, announced another conference was to be held with the management today.

The union, negotiating for a new wage agreement to take the place of a union contract expiring October 31, has refused to recognize a separate company agreement reached with Barberton employees, who until this year were not unionized.

Other plants of the company are located at Mt. Vernon, O.; Henrietta, Okla.; and Creighton and Ford City, Pa.

Terre Haute Crowd Prevents Browder Making Address

Pelted With Eggs And Tomatoes As He Arrives In Vicinity Of Radio Station

(International News Service)
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 21.—After removing traces of rotten eggs and overripe tomatoes from his clothing, Earl Browder, Communist presidential nominee, today prepared to demonstrate again to a local court that this city is unsafe for dynamic political oratory.

Pelted by the aged eggs and tomatoes, Browder late last night attempted to fulfill a speaking engagement over radio station WBOV here, only to be prevented from entering the studio by a solid phalanx of young men sitting four in a row on twenty-four stair steps, the only entrance to the air arena.

Browder yielded to the impenetrable barrier of massed humanity and retired to his hotel, but only after numerous fistfights had occurred.

Today the Communist presidential candidate, considering that his constitutional rights of free speech had been violated, was determined to seek legal redress from Judge Albert Owens, of Vigo county superior court.

Loses His Appeal

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 21.—Earl Browder, Communist candidate for president, today lost his legal fight to deliver a speech here. Prevented from making a speech last night by a barrage of eggs and over-ripe tomatoes, Browder today was denied an injunction by Judge Albert Owens restraining authorities from interfering with his speech.

Browder, obviously angered at the refusal of the judge to grant the injunction, declared he would leave Terre Haute this afternoon.

Judge Owens declared in his ruling that the disorder that marked Browder's attempt to talk last night had nothing to do with the injunction case before the court and therefore denied the injunction.

Browder was given a police guard in his hotel when rumors circulated he would be harassed during the night.

You can say one thing for Spain's Reds. While they are butchering the helpless, they don't claim that God is with them.

Has Leg Broken By Truck Trailer

James Thompson, Of Youngstown Road, Suffers Peculiar Injury Tuesday Afternoon

James Thompson, aged 43, of the Youngstown road, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering with a fracture of the right leg and bruises and lacerations, suffered in a peculiar accident Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock on the Edenburg-Pulaski road.

Mr. Thompson was helping to haul a trailer truck, which had become stalled up a hill with his team of horses, which were attached to his wagon. He had stopped to give the horses a rest and stepped between the trailer and truck when it started down the hill and struck him. The horses broke loose from the wagon at the same time and ran away.

It was stated at the hospital today that his condition was fair.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER GIVEN DAVID S. PYLE

few hours a day which the other directors of the Chamber of Commerce were able to give, but he was always ready and willing to do anything possible when his services were needed. "David S. Pyle was a man from the time he was a boy," Mr. Rentz said. "And I don't fear that anyone will contradict me when I say he has been the most outstanding citizen of this community for a great many years."

Following Mr. Rentz' talk, pep singing was led by Percy L. MacNab, of Los Angeles, Calif., who has been spending the summer here. "Perce" presided at this songfest in a way that added joy and spirit to the occasion.

C. E. Crawford, Mr. Pyle's successor, was the next speaker and read a telegram from B. F. Fairless, president of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company expressing his sincere regret in not being able to attend the dinner for Mr. Pyle, and complimenting him for his years of usefulness to the community.

Successors Give Tribute
D. A. Barrett, vice president of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company, also sent his regrets. Mr. Barrett has just been released from the hospital and felt the trip here would be too strenuous in his present condition. "There is no man living I have a higher regard for than David S. Pyle," Mr. Barrett said in his message.

Mr. Crawford said that when Mr. Pyle decided to retire that the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company lost one of its most valued executives. He said that every major development in equipment of the tin plate industry was conceived under the supervision of Mr. Pyle. "There is not a man or woman in the mills who does not regret he is leaving, and I hope he has many happy days in his retirement."

R. E. Sturdy, general manager of the New Castle Works, expressed his pleasure at being able to attend such a testimonial to Mr. Pyle as he had been arranged for last evening. "It has been said that the measure of an industry is but the shadow of a man," Mr. Sturdy said. "This is true, for wherever the name of the sheet and industry was uttered in the past, the name of David S. Pyle would be brought up. He has richly deserved the respect and honor that has come to him."

Mr. Pyle responded, speaking in behalf of the community, said that for many years, he had known Mr. Pyle by reputation only, and that when he came to know him personally, that he found he measured up to every bit of his reputation as a man, which to him was the highest tribute that could be paid to any man.

Mr. Pyle, in responding, said that he feels sad in leaving the industry he loves, but that while he intended to "go into low gear," that he would still be in the running. He told of the development of the tin plate industry here, stating that he was working for the old Vulcan Iron Company as a young man in 1898, when George Greer decided to get into the industrial game. In 1899 Mr. Greer began building his organization, took an option on the old Raney farm, where the New Castle Works now stands, and organized a stock company. Mr. Greer contacted Mr. Watson who offered Mr. Pyle's services to write the letters for him and make phone calls in regard to this new project. When the McKinley tariff bill was passed in 1890, which gave protection to the iron and steel industry, Mr. Greer started to work and on October 12, 1893, opened four hot mills, with the various departments that went with it. The Shenango Valley Steel Company had built a furnace and installed a Bessemer converter. Mr. Greer then added two more mills in 1894, and when the steel plant put in a bar mill to roll sheet bar in 1896, he added 12 additional mills, making 18, and in 1898 added two more hot mills making 20 in all.

Tin Plate Center
In 1898, the Shenango Valley Company bought the old Sample farm, where the Shenango Works now stands, and built the great Shenango Works, which was the largest in the world, and New Castle was known as the tin plate center of the world.

In 1904, he recounted how the American Can Company built its plant and New Castle became the first place in the world where the tin can was evolved from the iron ore, through the various processes necessary.

The value of the tin plate industry to New Castle can no more be adequately pointed out, Mr. Pyle emphasized, that by a study of the figures, showing that the payroll of the tin plate industry here for the first eight months of this year has been $4,000,000. In this time, 150,000 tons of black sheet have been put into one billion, two hundred and fifty million, five hundred tin cans.

In closing, Mr. Pyle urged the people of New Castle to stand together and to try and develop the resources and bring new industry here. "This can be done, if everyone will get out and boost his own home town, he said.

Dickey Presents Gift
Thomas W. Dickey, was called upon by Mr. Genkiner to make the presentation to Mr. Pyle, and stated that he felt the city of New Castle should have a monument to Mr. Pyle as his publicity should have been paid him a good salary.

He expressed his pleasure at being selected to head the committee in charge of the presentation, and in closing read a poem, which had been composed by Lida J. Greer, of the Margaret Henry Home, with which organization Mr. Pyle has been identified for many years as a member of the executive board.

The poem follows:
A TRIBUTE TO DAVID S. PYLE
There are monuments built in honor of great men here and abroad
But the monument that builds his own
Is the man that walks with child and Smile at men day by day
And takes the time to shake the hand
Of a child while on his way.

There is a man we know who has built a monument such as this
And at the Shenango and New Castle plants, he will be greatly missed
David Pyle is the man who has served God, man, country, and child
And watched his boys grow to men
As out of the gate they filed.

He was president of the Margaret Henry Home, the first of its kind in the world.
And in the hearts of the children and adults is his name held in highest esteem.
Some of those same children have—
But David S. Pyle stands out like a beautiful monument to them.

Now he has resigned his post as superintendent of the mill. He left a host of friends behind but he also left good will. And may the lamps he gave men shine brightly all the while.
So that he may enjoy them and his sweet memories he may smile.

Mr. Pyle again expressed his thanks, stating that he felt that tribute was the finest ever given to any man.

In closing the audience arose and sang "Auld Lang Syne," led by Mr. MacNab.
During the dinner, numbers were rendered by the Keystone Quartet. Rev. Norris A. White pronounced the invocation and benediction.

LANDON SHOWS NOTICEABLE GAIN

Roosevelt Leads In New York City, Landon In Other Cities Reported

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A flood of Roosevelt ballots cast in Manhattan Borough, New York City, today gave the chief executive a decided edge there in the Literary Digest presidential poll.

In four other cities, Harrisburg, Pa., Columbus, O., Pasadena, Cal., and Denver, the Republican nominee had a noticeable gain.

Second report figures for the ten cities follow:

	Landon—Roosevelt
Manhattan Boro., N. Y. C.	8,542 13,885
Pasadena, Cal.	2,285 979
Miss.	47 224
Denver, Colo.	2,902 2,037
Duluth, Minn.	980 693
Baton Rouge, La.	105 209
Columbus, O.	4,828 2,910
Houston, Tex.	1,185 2,802
Dubuque, Ia.	631 306
Harrisburg, Pa.	2,489 1,498

Nudism can't succeed. Imagine a big shot with knock-knees and a punch trying to high tail anybody.

CURTAIN RISING ON 'THE MIKADO' TONIGHT AT 8:15

travesty upon Japan yet contains little beyond its costuming to identify it with that country.

The music does not pretend to be Oriental but is pleasantly English. The words are still as fresh and smart as anything Noel Coward or S. N. Behrman is writing.

Simple Burlesque
As for plot, the colorful operetta concerns Nanki-Poo's love for Yum-Yum, pretty young ward of Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner. Since Nanki-Poo is the Mikado's son in disguise and affianced to the elderly Katisha, and since Ko-Ko has been ordered to behead him, the course of true love runs not at all smoothly, that is, not until a few minutes before the final curtain. It is all simple burlesque and highly amusing.

Under the intelligent direction of two New Wilmington professors, A. T. Cordray and W. W. Campbell, the talented cast has captured the light spirit of the thing and the performances will undoubtedly be long remembered by New Castle.

MONAS HARLAN

Every participant is suited to his part. John Cassidy, of Sharon, who appears in the role of the Mikado, is a big, husky man with a fine deep basso voice; Allen Wilkinson Stone makes a sweet Yum-Yum; no one could be better than Ted Strimater as the clownish Ko-Ko.

Miss Crawford Here
Particularly proud are the directors in having in the cast the lovely central Miss Rebekah Crawford, of New York City.

"Everybody loves Becky" are words often heard this week of this nationally known singer who came here from New York to appear in "The Mikado" out of appreciation for her former teacher, Professor Campbell.

Miss Crawford, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, New Wilmington, and a cousin of Dr. James Crawford, New Castle, has sung with the Schuberts in the operettas "Artists and Models" and "Cherry Blossoms" and on the National and Columbia networks, and on the Keith Pantages and Independent circuits as a featured singer.

For the past seven years she has been a soloist at the First Reformed church of Brooklyn and the Presbyterian church of New Wilmington. He took the same part in the Sharon production of the Gilbert and Sullivan show two years ago, made a big hit, and last year sang there in "The Vagabond King."

Monas Harlan In Cast
For the role of Nanki-Poo, hero of "The Mikado," the directors have Monas Harlan, of Harlanburg, whose reputation as a singer is also very well known.

Mr. Harlan is a Junior at Westminster College and sings in the United Presbyterian church of New Wilmington. He took the same part in the Sharon production of the Gilbert and Sullivan show two years ago, made a big hit, and last year sang there in "The Vagabond King."

Directors Campbell and Cordray, Miss Crawford and the entire cast are giving their services for the witty and tuneful show, the proceeds of which are to go to the local Young Women's Christian Association.

The curtain rises at 8:15 tonight. You can get your tickets at the door.

Murphy Funeral Service In Sharon

Funeral services were conducted this morning at Sharon for Simon P. Murphy, 65, of Youngstown, O., who was killed on Sunday when struck by an automobile in that city. W. R. Daley of Evansville, Ind., driver of the car which struck Mr. Murphy, was arrested on a reckless driving charge.

Mr. Murphy was the brother of Anna Murphy of New Castle. He leaves also three daughters, two sons, a brother and another sister. His wife died three years ago.

HUGE CROWD IN LOS ANGELES, CAL. CHEERS LANDON

New Deal claims to the contrary. He was informed the Townsend followers would vote en masse for him, that the Republican party had been revived and that constitutional Democrats would desert the New Deal by hundreds of thousands.

Half Million See Landon
His reception was tumultuous. Fully a half million Californians saw him. He was greeted with enthusiastic cheers on every appearance, although he did draw some hooting in downtown Los Angeles. The Republican leaders afterward charged the boeing was prearranged and organized by the city Democratic committee.

Before leaving here, Landon issued a statement replying to an attack by Secretary of Interior Ickes. He charged Ickes previously assailed him as "a puppet of big business," but now accused him of being "a Socialist and enemy of big business." He said he had informally consulted Ickes some years ago about a federal loan to be used in a state drive to force lower gas rates but had never made any formal application for it. He said he was ready to adopt public ownership of utilities where necessary on a local or state basis but was distinctly opposed to federal ownership of public utilities where "the federal government is using the money of all the states for the benefit of one."

Difference Between Plan
"The difference between my plan and the haphazard system of the present national administration is that this administration believes in getting into business and apologizing later," said Landon. "I believe in getting private interests to recognize their obligations to the public and then leaving private business alone. That is just what I did in Kansas. I got lower rates for the people on gas and other utilities and private business continues to operate."

"I might add that whatever I do in the matter of utility and power projects, when elected president, I will not use the money of the people to attempt to harness the tides." The Republican nominee headed eastward through territory long claimed by the New Deal. His itinerary took him across southern California, Arizona and the northern tip of Texas into Oklahoma. He scheduled a rear porch talk from his "Sunflower Special" at Phoenix, Ariz., tonight and another in Oklahoma City Friday morning. After that he will deliver major addresses in Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh before making a two-day visit to New York City October 28 and 29. He will make a "rear porch" tour of Oklahoma, Indiana, possibly Ohio and Pennsylvania enroute to New York.

Hammers New Deal
In his address here, Landon maintained the high tempo he set on his recent midwest trip. He hammered the New Deal without mincing words and he laid a personal responsibility on the president for its alleged misdeeds.

Declaring the "usefulness of our constitution is being questioned," he warned the nation that immortal document had been drafted by men steeped in the agonies of tyranny. He repeated George Washington's warning that liberty can be undermined when it cannot be directly overthrown.

Declaring the "usefulness of our constitution is being questioned," he warned the nation that immortal document had been drafted by men steeped in the agonies of tyranny. He repeated George Washington's warning that liberty can be undermined when it cannot be directly overthrown.

"Spokesmen of the administration made stump speeches and issued statements condemning the court. They ridiculed the justices. They said they were obstructing progress. Even the president joined in this undermining attack on men who were only doing their duty. The president predicted disaster if his plans were held unconstitutional. Now he claims credit for the improvement that followed."

But often the philanthropist thinks he is helping the poor when he is only paying for the fun of managing them.

Says Concert Is Spoiled By Some Attending Event

One of the best concerts of the season presented by the Works Progress Administration was handicapped Tuesday night in the Franklin Junior high school auditorium by the tactics of a group of young men, according to J. W. Ely of the W. P. A.

The auditorium was comfortably filled, the orchestra was never better but the group spoiled many of the numbers by their noise and commotion, he said.

Refuses To Leave Porch Bed; Jailed

Jerry McCarthy, 61, address unknown, was arrested by State Trooper Ralph Mears in Shenango township last night on a charge of disorderly conduct and in default of $3.00 fine and costs was committed by Squire James C. Brice to the county jail.

McCarthy wrapped himself in a rug and went to sleep on the rear porch of a Shenango township home. McCarthy refused to leave when the owner of the home ordered him to leave. State Trooper Mears was called and McCarthy left but in Mears' custody.

'September Morn' Romeo Is Jailed

Wheeling Police Capture Man Who Has Been Driving Auto Naked, Women Molested

(International News Service) WHEELING, W. V., Oct. 21.—Women and girls in Wheeling's exclusive Pike residential section breathed easier today with police announcement of the capture of the city's "September Morn" Romeo.

Nabbed while driving an automobile without clothes after a chase by police motorcycles, he gave his name as Walter Brandon, 35, married and father of a child, authorities said.

Motorcycle police said when they came upon the man he was struggling to don his shirt. Trousers, shorts and the remainder of his raiment were on the back seat, police said. Women and girls had complained a nude man driving in an automobile had been making advances to them. Police held the suspect on a morality charge.

DENTISTS HERE TO BE HONORED

Four In Profession 35 Years To Get Tribute In Franklin Thursday

Four New Castle dentists who have practiced for 35 years or more will be honored at a banquet of dentists from all over Northwestern Pennsylvania in Franklin Thursday night, it was learned today.

Beautiful silver keys will be presented to Dr. W. L. Beal, Dr. E. Lee Boyles, Dr. Bert M. Mott and Dr. William P. Felch, the four from New Castle, and 23 other dentists in the district, whose practice has extended over 35 years.

The dinner will close one of the periodical programs of the dentists' state association's ninth district. Several counties will have representation at the conference.

A gold key, it was also said, will be presented to Dr. H. M. Fetzner, a Greenville dentist whose practice extends over 50 years.

Lawrence county will send a party of dentists headed by Dr. Kenneth E. Voorhees, president of the Lawrence County Dental society.

"WARRIORS OF TOMORROW"

(After seeing a photograph of babies in a ward of a Moscow hospital over which the caption, "Warriors of Tomorrow," was inscribed.)

"Warriors of Tomorrow!" No. That caption on the printed page glosses the crime which shames our age.

Those babies which you so proudly show

In truth should not be labeled so.

In this cruel fate appears:

"The cradle of the future years!"

Babies born to such a bitter fate,

For you should sterner lines be read.

Like this: "Tomorrow's Unknown Dead!"

Why not come out and plainly state:

"The victims of Tomorrow's Hate?"

Caption them thus: "Tomorrow's class."

For cannon fire and poison gas."

"Tomorrow's Crazed!" "Tomorrow's Blind!"

"Tomorrow's hopeless, broken wrecks!"

"Tomorrow's blood for fields and decks."

"Here in this baby ward you'll find Tomorrow's shell shocked shattered mind!"

"Tomorrow's Dead! "Tomorrow's Maimed!"

That all mankind might be ashamed.

Vandenberg Has New Defense In His Radio Debate

(International News Service)

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 21.—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan had today entered a new defense to his use in a radio political "debate" of records of former campaign statements of President Roosevelt.

In an address here Vandenberg declared he intended to continue his attacks on the Roosevelt administration "regardless of any efforts to restrain or interfere with a presentation of the opinions he wishes to express. At the same time, he severely criticized those persons responsible for banning his projected method of debating with the President over the air.

"We invoked a new technique," he declared. "Instead of quoting second-hand the statements made by Mr. Roosevelt four years ago, we faithfully presented his exact words in his own voice precisely as he spoke them at the time. We did it from transcriptions and were careful to lift nothing from the context which could alter the meaning."

FARLEY MODEST IN HIS CLAIMS

Every State West Of Hudson River Is His Claim For Roosevelt

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—National Democratic chairman James A. Farley predicted here that President Franklin D. Roosevelt will capture every state "west of the Hudson river."

"The Republicans," he declared last night at the "hundred dollar dinner" tendered him in the Penn Athletic Club, "are going to be in for some surprise in the New England states." It was estimated the dinner yielded $187,600 for the Democratic state campaign chest.

"President Roosevelt will be re-elected because the mass of the people is grateful for the accomplishments of his administration," said Farley. "The nation today is approaching one of the brightest periods of prosperity in history, and full credit is due the leader in the White House."

"It doesn't matter what the Republicans do or how much cash their multimillionaire backers pour into the campaign coffers."

GEN. SMEDLEY D. BUTLER, retired fighting major general of the United States Marines, asks the Women's Christian Temperance Union to start a campaign against drunken automobile drivers, and also help peace by working for a constitutional amendment forbidding the President or Congress to send troops out of the country.

You cannot change men by legislation as was discovered in our prohibition strike; you must change the men from the inside.

BESIDES, IF WE have more wars, the first thing would be to send American fighters out to the country in airplanes to the capital city of the attacking nation, to gas, bomb and wreck it with as little loss of time as possible.

Wars will be prevented when rulers of nations, including the richest, know that beginning a war will mean having your cities destroyed.

HINDUS AND MOHAMMEDANS continue their killing in Bombay, one religion lying in wait for the other. 50 killed, 490 wounded thus far. An epidemic is feared, as garbage collectors will not work, disliking to be with the dead.

Hindus have music in their temples, their queer gods are supposed to like it. Mohammedans despise music in temples; Mohammed and his one god Allah, do not like it.

Up Mohammedans and Hindus murder each other to please their gods, that actually have no existence—according to our ideas. We may be mistaken in our religious beliefs.

WAR COSTS money even when you have nothing to do with it, and are not responsible. The big war cost Uncle Sam ten thousand millions in one lump when our "all-lant allies" agreed to watch on their debts, and cost him other tens of millions.

Even the little Spanish civil war cost us money; United States exports to Spain are cut down 85 per cent. Uncle Sam used to sell many motor trucks, buses, lubricating oils, etc., no selling now. And we did not even sell any ammunition to make up for it—fortunately.

It is good news that the earthquake in Venice contended itself with shaking down old chimneys, destroyed no ancient buildings, or works of art.

An earthquake in Venice is inconvenient, for you cannot follow the usual course and "rush from your house into the street." If you rush from your house you may land in the canal, although there are streets, squares, and narrow paths along canals.

Gondolas overcrowded, fouled, and many citizens floundered in the canals. No dead or wounded in Venice, although there were some elsewhere, 15 killed, many wounded when a church bell tower fell.

It always surprises and shocks the pious when a church or other religious edifice is shaken down, as though the ruler of the universe could be expected to suspend his own laws for individual cases. The great earthquake at Lisbon which brought down the stone roof of the great cathedral, killing thousands of women and children that had gathered beneath it for protection, is supposed to have undermined the faith of many.

My New York
By James Aswell

Copyright, 1936, Central Press Association
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The sort of plays the current season has been yielding up ought to be a great inspiration to all the unproduced dramatists in the greater New York area. That is the one good aspect of great droves of feeble dramas: audiences leave the theater resolved to polish up that thing about white cargoes in the South Seas they did for sophomore English and got A on from the prof.

Indeed the nights I often type off Act 1, Scene 1, around eleven-twenty p. m., in simple protest against the sights and sounds which for the last several hours have been assailing my eyes and ears. Before long I am afraid my desk drawer will be as full of abortive play-starts as the average successful dramatic critic's.

So far the showshops, in a year when the public is clamoring as never before for appealing entertainment, have offered the following:

Two plays about military schools, proving that moony and whoopsy young men often have a hard time of it in these institutions and get their psychical shins barked.

Two plays about charming and demented murderers, one of them an entertainment and up to a standard it would seem no Broadway show ought to fall below.

One play proving that Napoleon was not as happy on St. Helena as he had been as Emperor. One play proving that actresses probably will not thrive in holy wedlock though they dream of romance. One play proving that occasionally children can help solve crimes. One play proving that ladies who run off with unstable artists may come to no good end. And, of course, the usual play—Broadway keeps one roaring all the time like the Metro lion—proving that the Supreme Court is composed of nine old men and that any man who makes more than ten dollars a week ought to be in Sing Sing.

Now, it is conceivable that good plays could be written on any one of the above themes. The trouble is that the plays, with the single exception of the sleekly-contrived murder drama, are as pale as the statement of their themes might lead you to fear.

But seasons which come in like the turkey may go out like the golden goose. The examples which have so far been exposed should serve as inspiration to all those who believe playwriting is an art so occult it is hopeless to undertake it as a career beyond the age of eight. I expect a lot of typewriter paper has been ordered in recent weeks and I cheerfully look forward to the bon mots that are going to be set down on it.

Babble: It was inspiration that prompted Leonard Sillman to hire the Duncan sisters to appear in his revue called, significantly, "New Faces". The age of specializing has hit the quick-snack bars until dozens of them serve only sea food.

Harry Richman now lollups about the town with TWO blondes on his arm, to confound the gossips. Proposed play with the most enraging title: "Black Limelight". Ethel Barrymore, emerging as a full-fledged teacher of stage hopefuls, has been bestowed on her Mountclair estate by eager young mimes. She is joining the faculty of one of the drama academies and will hold forth twice a week in town.

Opera at the Hippodrome is packing them in and there are those who contend "Carmen's" capacity draw may be helped by the unfortunate events in Spain—as well as by the adventurous management which is now employing Mickey Walker, the featherweight boxing champion, to ride a white horse in the bullring scene.

Attends Mercer County Church Seventy Years

Home Coming Of Center Church Brings Out Many Members For Over Half A Century

GROVE CITY, Oct. 21.—Among those present Sunday afternoon at the Center Presbyterian church Homecoming were Mrs. Serena Pillman McDowell, a member for 70 years; Mrs. Alice McConnell Richardson, 69 years; A. D. Armstrong, 60 years, and a member of the Session 40 years; W. R. McCutcheon, 58 years; Mrs. Maggie Porter Sidley, 52 years.

From memory, and old records, it was shown that the church has had 111 years of continuous ministry since Rev. Wm. Wood organized the congregation in 1801, and was ordained pastor on Nov. 3, 1802. The name "Center" was chosen because the church was erected midway between churches at Plaingrove, Lawrence County, and Coolspring, Mercer County.

Among the charter members were Andrew and Ephraim Rose, and David and James McKinley, ancestors of President McKinley. The first church was of logs, with a thatched roof, erected at Cranberry Corners, several miles distant from the present building. The site is now a brush-covered plot of ground in which are the graves of several ancestors of President McKinley. Split logs served for pews.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

POOR SPELLERS

Many parents write me about the poor speller, most about the child in the upper grammar grades, junior high or senior high school. While these pupils doubtless had spelling troubles much earlier, their handicap grows more apparent as they advance to higher grades, since the amount of written work increases. And when the poor speller takes up a foreign language he has a sorry time of it.

Naturally the teacher is annoyed with poor spelling in written work. Therefore the poor speller may receive a poor or failing grade on a paper otherwise of high order. Although she is inclined to penalize unduly for misspelled words, the student might as well make the most of it.

How To Help.

You wish to help your child at home in his spelling. If he has a list of words he will want you to pronounce them for him to spell before he has carefully studied them. Make sure that his list, if he has written the words, is spelled accurately and plainly. If you have a typewriter, copy the list for him, or have him do so, you checking carefully. Indeed, the typewriter he could use to great advantage in spelling practice at home.

You have two main problems: 1. To keep wholly calm and poised yourself. 2. To induce him to study a few of the words carefully, and to try to spell no words unless he is very sure he can do so correctly. Regardless of the length of his list, induce him to attack just a few at a sitting, or an evening. Better for him to master a few than to mess over many. Once he finds that he can spell a few accurately, he will have confidence that he later can learn to spell more. Lead him to look very carefully at the word as he pronounces it and names the letters of it in their proper order; to do this over and over before he tries to spell it from memory; to make accuracy his goal, and to feel no haste whatsoever.

As this pupil in the higher grades or high school prepares written work at home, encourage him to ask you to spell any word for him about whose spelling he has the slightest doubt, and never be too busy to spell it. If you tell him to look it up he almost surely will not, but will take a chance at it. You want him to gain a spelling conscience.

My two boys were miserable spellers on entering junior high, thanks to the remissness of the earlier grades. We treated them as I am advising you. It has worked. Fortunately the youngsters' teachers in junior high have given special spelling lists which are technical words for the respective studies for him to master.

NEW GALILEE

Mrs. Margaret Lambright is confined to her bed with a severe cold. Mrs. Edward Horn is improving after being ill for two weeks with a heavy cold.

Miss Mary Dryden is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dryden in Wilkinsburg.

Rally day will be observed in the Church of the Nazarene next Sunday with a short program.

Dr. O. G. Fairchild of St. Petersburg, Fla., visited Friday with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dryden of this place.

Mrs. John Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and children of Wampum visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tanner on Sunday afternoon. The Reformed Presbyterian Missionary society will meet Thursday, November 5, for their annual meeting and dinner at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

At a special meeting of the official board of the Church of the Nazarene on Sunday evening Rev. Pel-low learned he had been unanimously voted on at a previous meeting and has consented to accept the charge here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenkins and Mate Beatty visited recently with Mrs. Mary Cunningham of Elmworth, who fell some time ago and sustained a broken leg. She has just been dismissed from the Bellevue hospital.

The Young Ladies Missionary society of the Church of the Nazarene met Monday evening at the home of Elmor and Emmador Baumgardner for their regular meeting. At this meeting a box was packed and made ready for its missionary journey. A tempting lunch was served.

Get Rid of Excess FAT with this SAFE DRUGLESS Treatment

Do you feel as though you have a rubber tire around your stomach? Do your fat arms distress you? Is your face pudgy looking because of surplus flesh? Does that layer of fat across your back and shoulders classify you as "fat and forty"? If so, you're interested in WATER-OFF, the pure vegetable tablets for weight reduction. WATER-OFF is guaranteed safe and harmless, and yet is amazingly effective, as testified to by thousands of users, many of whom gratefully report reductions of 5 pounds a week and even more, and with great benefit to their health and general well-being. WATER-OFF is a compound of pure vegetable matter and herbs. It is absolutely free from drugs and so guaranteed. It contains no dinitrophenol or other dangerous drugs—no reducing salts or other harmful laxatives that physic the system and leave the skin loose and flabby. WATER-OFF, on the contrary, enables you to take off weight—gently—gradually—without the slightest harm or danger. Instructions say: Take 3 or 4 tablets a day, before meals, then eat your hearty fill. "Results," say users, "are simply amazing." Unslightly fat seems to melt away like magic, leaving no saggy, flabby skin or broken-down tissue. You've seen WATER-OFF advertised in Pictorial Review, Physical Culture and other leading magazines at $2.45. Now we offer it to you for only $1.19 with the understanding that if you are not satisfied with the results, you have the privilege of returning the empty carton and we will return your money.

Highway Safety Added To Course Of Study Here

Freshmen To Get Complete Course In Auto Driving And Highway Safety At School

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 21.—Do you know just how speed influences the braking distance of an automobile? How do alcoholic beverages and other stimulants affect the reaction time of a driver? Who has the right of way between cars in various situations? These questions and others pertaining to safe driving are now being answered in the safety instruction which has been added this year to the ninth grade course of study in Civics in the local high.

This work presents in a very striking manner the tremendous loss of life and property which is caused annually by automobile accidents. This is followed by a study of the causes of accidents and how they may be prevented. A particularly valuable feature of this instruction is the generous use of diagrams which show the faults of such poor driving methods as passing another car on a curve or on the top of a hill. Each phase of safe driving is treated in a very clear and concise manner.

Ellwood City Man Sues For Payment Of Damaged Truck

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 21.—Compensation for a truck which Raymond L. Kneiss, of Ellwood City, alleges was damaged by an automobile driven by the defendant, was sought in a trespass suit that went to trial yesterday before Judge John H. Wilson, in which John Caporali is the defendant.

Kneiss testified he parked his truck in front of the place where he was staying on the main street of Prospect the evening of August 30, last year, was aroused from his slumber by the noise of a collision, and upon investigating discovered that an automobile driven by Caporali had crashed into the rear end of his truck and pushed it over the curb.

He had parked the truck against the curb, Kneiss testified. He was living in Prospect at the time of the accident, he said, but since then has moved to Ellwood City.

Stalin Plans To Visit Roosevelt

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Novoye Russkoye Slovo, New York Russian language daily, today quoted the Soviet Press Bureau as saying that Josef V. Stalin, dictator of Soviet Russia, would visit the United States for medical treatment but not until after the November election for fear of hurting President Roosevelt's chances.

This is the newspaper's dispatch dated London:

"The Soviet Press Bureau today created a sensation when it announced that Josef Stalin would go to the United States after the November elections.

"He is in immediate need of (medical) treatment but his trip has been postponed because it would seriously injure President Roosevelt's fight for re-election. There is no doubt that Stalin will visit President Roosevelt."

At this meeting, candidates were initiated in the first and second degrees, under the direction of Miss Elma Robinson. The tableaux were impressive and the floor work was put on very nicely. Fall flowers and colorful autumn leaves added attraction to the setting.

During the business session, it was announced that Mahoning Valley Grange will hold a Halloween party Thursday evening, October 29, at the hall. Everyone welcome. On Tuesday evening, the class of candidates will receive the third and fourth degrees.

Young Couple Given Divorce

Girl-Mother, 16, Granted Divorce From Her "Too Harsh" 16-Year-Old Husband

(International News Service)
PORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mullins, both 16 years old the parents of two children, one of which is now two years old, today were no longer man and wife.

The young couple, who were married at the age of 14 and upon birth of their first child became nationally known, obtained their final decree after a hectic two years.

Their latest war was straightened out permanently by Judge A. J. Power who agreed with Mrs. Mullins that her husband was "too harsh" with her. The youthful husband was ordered to pay $5 weekly for the support of the two children.

Former Queen Of Spain Sails For England Today

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Victoria, the former queen of Spain, sailed for England today aboard the liner Queen Mary, supremely confident that Nationalist troops would capture Madrid within a short time.

The queen instructed her secretary, Count Fernando de Mora, to inform newspapermen that she believed the uprising was "not a Fascist movement but the fight for a downtrodden people against their oppressors." With victory over the Communists in sight, Count Fernando said:

"Her majesty is a very happy woman."

San Diego Has $2,000,000 Fire

(International News Service)
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 21.—A fire which broke out in a department store here today, roared through the business district and caused $2,000,000 in damage before being brought under control.

The flames destroyed Whitney department store, razed the 11-story Watts building, and partially burned a National Dollar store.

Two firemen were seriously injured as thousands lined the streets to watch 200 battle desperately against the raging inferno. The flames were checked in two hours after traffic had been cut off and all available equipment rushed to the scene.

V. Szozeponski, a volunteer fireman, fell through a fiery roof and fractured his skull while Edwin Baum, a regular fireman, was hurt when a hose exploded in his hand.

Cause of the blaze had not been determined.

Tree Trimming Urged In City

At the regular monthly meeting of the Shade Tree Commission in City hall on Tuesday, the matter of low-hanging branches was discussed and the members of the commission stressed the importance of branches being at least nine feet above the pavement, especially in the vicinity of schools and on street corners.

The fall season, particularly this month of October, was suggested as being the most appropriate time for tree-trimming. The commission also requested that all dead and broken branches be removed, inasmuch as they are a menace to life and property.

Mrs. Feuchtwanger, chairman, announced that people all over the county are planting trees in celebration of the Sesqui-Centennial of our constitution, and it is hoped that the citizens of New Castle will cooperate as they have always done in the past and enter into this plan of observance, and kindly notify the secretary of the commission, city building, of any trees that are planted.

Verdict For $3500 Against Mather In Mike Piskorz Case

The jury in the case of Mike Piskorz against Louis C. Mather, which was tried before Judge W. Walter Brahm, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $3,500. The case grew out of an automobile accident on the New Castle-Youngstown road near the Harbor, when the Mather car struck the Piskorz car which was being repaired by the roadside.

Another case growing out of the same accident, that of Elmer E. Fry, Sr., against Louis C. Mather, was taken up for trial before Judge James A. Chambers this morning.

In it the plaintiff asks damages for the death of his son, Elmer E. Fry, who was fatally injured helping Piskorz to repair his car.

Rev. Smith Not With Townsend

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Dr. Francis E. Townsend was adamant today concerning his decision to strike the name of the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith from the roles of the old age pension movement.

"Gerald Smith is no longer in any capacity connected with the Townsend movement," Dr. Townsend declared, if reports concerning his former chief lieutenant's "Fascist action" are true.

Mourning Period Ends For King In England

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Today is the dawn of a new era in British life, a period expected to be one of the gayest in British history and certainly bound to bring to England's royalty and "upper crust" the most informal and brightest parties they have enjoyed since the reign of Edward VII more than a quarter of a century ago.

"Night Life" Again.
Perhaps some members of royalty will get their first taste of real "night life" as it has developed since the war.

Today was the official ending of the nine months' period of mourning for the late King George V. With formal restrictions now off, the reign of the young and handsome bachelor Edward VIII entered its first real unfettered phase, and the pace was expected to be set by the dashing young monarch himself, who always has liked a good time.

More like his grandfather, Edward VII, than anyone else in his family, and far different than his father, the staid, formal George V, King Edward followed a comparatively

School Teachers Should Forfeit Their Licenses

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Frederick K. Stevens, formerly of the State Department of Education, today declared that school teachers who advocate doctrines perverse to the government should be considered traitors to their oath and forced to forfeit their licenses.

Stevens, who was a member of the House of Representatives, said that teachers who advocate doctrines perverse to the government should be considered traitors to their oath and forced to forfeit their licenses.

New Castle Has Better Record Than Warren Hi

Record To Date Gives New Castle Five Victories,
Warren But Two
Wins

New Castle High School "Red Hurricane" football team will enter the night-game at Warren, Ohio this coming Friday night, with the best record to date of the two teams. New Castle has five victories and one defeat on the 1936 record books. Warren has but two victories and three defeats.

If records mean anything New Castle should win this game at Warren, but usually records are all "screwed". You cannot do a football game out. Anything can happen.

In the matter of points the New Castles have scored 89 and been scored upon for 25 points. The Warrens have scored 43 points and have had 52 points scored against them.

Correct Weaknesses
The glaring weaknesses that cropped up in the Massillon upset here the other night are being corrected this week by the New Castle coaches. Warren High was fooled severely by the fast passing Martins Perry High team, and they may find the air full of passes this week.

Who knows? Warren Harding would like awfully well to snatch this game this coming Friday night. In two years now the Castles have taken the verdict, but at Warren and at New Castle. The Warrenites are very hopeful that this year will find the Ohioans on top of the heap.

If you care for records—
Records To Date
Warren, 33—Akron North 0
Warren, 13—Cleveland Holy Name 6
Warren, 6—Erie Academy 13
Warren, 2—S. of Youngstown 13
Warren, 6—Martins Perry 25
Totals 48 52

Coach Hill Rebuilding
Faced by the prospect of meeting his second major foe in two successive weeks, and hoping to atone for the 25 to 0 setback at Martins Perry, O., last week, Coach Pierre Hill is rebuilding his team for the New Castle game. There will be several changes in the starting lineup on Friday night, is the indication.

Long drills have been held this week by the Warrens, and they will be ready for the invasion of the "Red Hurricane".

Throw Stones And Break Street Lights

Lieutenant of Police George Kennedy and cruiser car officers last night sought vandals who broke street lights in Lawrence street. Employees of the Pennsylvania Power Company repaired broken lights twice. According to the lieutenant, stones were hurled at the lights.

One-Hour Protest Strike Is Called

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Columbia University student sympathizers of Robert Burke, ousted for his leadership in an anti-Nazi demonstration, planned a one-hour protest "strike" today.

Notre Dame Invades Pittsburgh To Battle Panthers October 24

JOHN LAUTAR, Guard, Notre Dame; HAROLD STEBBINS, Halfback, Pitt; BOB WILKIE, Halfback, Notre Dame; MARSHALL GOLDBERG, Halfback, Pitt; ALBIN LEZOUSKI, Guard, Pitt; ANDY PUPLIS, Quarterback, Notre Dame.

Gray Training Hard For Karak

Rubin And Gray Box Daily
For Coming Bout
Next Monday

JULIUS WALTERS TO BATTLE RUBIN

Ray Gray, South Side middle-weight slugger, is "prepping" daily with Mike Rubin, local light heavy-weight at the Jefferson Athletic club to put himself in ace condition for his boxing bout with Frankie Karak, of Youngstown, next Monday night at the Arena Garden, Neshannock avenue.

Gray, a right hander, plunked Keith Goodballet on the chin in the first round of their scrap and although later set down by a south-paw to the chest he was able to show sufficient aggressiveness and boxing ability to win the three round award over the East Liverpool fighter.

According to Vincent Joyce, trainer for two score Ohio fighters, Karak is one of the best middle-weights in Ohio amateur ranks. In fact, Joyce rates Karak better than Johnny Vargo, who is scheduled to fight a Midland middleweight in the same ring next Monday night.

Two Titleholders
A classy scrap should be seen in the semi-final when Earl (Pop Eye) Donaldson, golden gloves champion of Youngstown, opposes George Davis, the Ohio state champion. Davis fought at the Field club here, is known for good fights in other Pennsylvania towns and a hot setto is expected.

There ought to be a lot of gloves fly when Carl Brown and Charlie Houser clash. Houser is a colored boy and another exciting tilt will be seen when Jimmy Patton, of New Castle, opposes the hard hitting Johnny Colta, who while new to boxing, is one of the best punchers in the 135 pound division.

There is no question about excitement when Mike Rubin and Julius Walters clash. Owing to a big disparity of weight, George Ward could not go on with Mike in the first Arena Garden boxing show but Walters eagerly accepted the bout for the coming show which will contain eight bouts.

Army Grigger Is Recovering

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Oct. 21.—Rapid recovery was predicted today for Woodrow Wilson, 21, of El Paso, Tex., Army halfback stricken with pneumonia, heritage of the rain and mud football game with Harvard last Saturday.

HAWAIIANS PLAY ROUGH FOOTBALL

Assault And Battery, Murder And Manslaughter Are Tame In Comparison

(International News Service)
HONOLULU T. H., Oct. 21.—Fifteen hundred boys between the ages of 14 and 21 in this mid-Pacific town are playing the fastest, wildest, scrappiest game of American football in the United States—and they play it barefooted.

The games here have bewildered Dick Hyland, writer and former Stanford university halfback. "The games apparently contain mayhem, manslaughter, murder, assault and battery with perjury just a dash of forest fire," said Hyland.

"A kick-off looks like a dropped gob of quicksilver; midguts dash in all directions and then explode into things which resemble half a dozen brawls between three times that many angry octopi—or is it octopuses?"

Take Good Poke.
"Arms, legs, torsos, heads and bare feet whirl in kaleidoscopic masses that stop only when the whistle blows or someone on the side line takes a good poke at a neighbor."

"Each team has thousands of rooters and the games arouse more partisanship feelings than is found in Harlem when Joe Louis fights. During these idle time meless the boys on the field declare a truce and watch."

Twelve years ago the city fathers of Honolulu formed a playground football league. Today under the direction of Arthur Powelson of Honolulu's recreation commission some 1500 boys heave at each other of a Sunday morning and spend the rest of the week practicing to heave at each other again.

Know Your Signals!

HANDS ON HIPS
Hands on hips designates an off-side or violation of kick-off formation. The penalty for off-side is five yards.

Pitt Panthers Hard At Work

Hope To Attain Same Condition As Prior To Battle With Ohio State

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—The Pitt Panthers worked hard today to regain for Saturday's Notre Dame tilt the smooth attack and stalwart line that rated them as potential champions prior to the surprising reverse by Duquesne University, while the Dukes went through final scrimmages to tune up for Friday's game.

Daily sessions have kept the Panthers' collective noses to the grindstone. But the boys were working with a will—partly to make amends for last Saturday's defeat, but mostly to revenge their beating at the hands of the Irish last year.

The Dukes polish off their hard work today, with the usual light drills tomorrow. Clipper Smith's boys take on a fast West Virginia Wesleyan outfit under the lights.

Arrest Motorists On Perry Highway

(Special To The News)
MERCER, Oct. 21.—The state motor police issued a warning some months ago to motorists to cut down on the speed at which they were driving. Just to convince them that they were not kidding they have been making arrests this week of speed fiends. Drivers round the 60 mark are being caught and fined.

A drive on motorists failing to recognize stop signs is also a part of the crusade of the police. The week ends prove the largest number of defendants. The Perry highway provides the largest percentage of violators of the first named offense. There is no highway in Pennsylvania on which there is more traffic moved at a higher rate of speed.

Not Allowed To Have Sticker On Car

State highway patrol, attached to the examination squad here refused to give a test to a prospective operator because there was a sign on the rear window of the auto he drove. The youth took the car back to the owner and the latter refused to remove the sticker, hence the examiners could do nothing but refuse an examination as recently an order was put out banning stickers on front and rear windows of automobiles because they block vision of the driver.

Movie Contract For Lou Gehrig In Tarzan Role

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Hollywood has hopes of getting Iron Man Lou Gehrig, of the New York Yankees, to turn "monkey man" under the Kleig lights.

Third Christy Walsh, manager of the Yankee star, it was learned today that Sol Lesser, producer for principal productions, has indicated great interest in getting the "Iron Man" to star in "Tarzan of the Apes," for which Lesser has bought the world rights.

It's all due to the Gehrig chest. Built somewhat on skyscraper lines, Gehrig has one of the biggest chest expansions in baseball. Tipping the beam at 220 pounds and standing over six feet, the Yankee first sacker has played in more than 1800 consecutive games and well earned the "Iron man" tag.

IN SPORTS' LAND HERE AND THERE

Two of the fighters scheduled to box here Monday night scored impressive victories last night in the Diamond Belt Tournament at Youngstown. Frankie Karak (Korick), opponent of Ray Gray of this city, knocked out Jack Sharkey in the third round, and Johnny Vargo, scheduled to box a middleweight from Midland, won from Cap Royal in three rounds.

Maecoud, a daughter of High Cloud, yesterday at Laurel track, scored an impressive victory over eight other two year old fillies in the mile of the Bolivar purse. The Maemere Farm filly, ridden by Eddie Litzberger, had none of the best racing luck and came on in the final stride to win from Evening Tide by a neck. She is entered in Saturday's $10,000 Selma stakes.

Woodrow Wilson, 21, of San Angelo, Tex., is under treatment in a Boston hospital for pneumonia. The hospital attendants say he is a member of the West Point football squad and was taken to the institution last Saturday following the Harvard-West Point game which was played in a deluge of rain.

Johnny Gilbert, America's leading jockey in 1932 when he rode 212 winners, has signed to ride for John Hay Whitney next year. The Pittsburgh Kan. veteran piloted only one winner last year, but starting the middle of the season he regained his old time form and has ridden close to 140 victors since January.

CONNORS IN NEW YORK
Sparky Connors, Westminster basketball and football star several seasons ago, is a policeman at the New York end of the Holland tunnels.

It's fair enough. People who blame Republicans for the depression are the same ones who gave Coolidge credit for prosperity.

Favor Chilean Over Haynes In Battle Tonight

Senor Arturo Godoy, Will Swing Fists With Leroy Haynes, Colored Boy

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service
Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The first candidates for the J. L. S. A. S. (Joe Louis Shock-Absorbing Society) will be unveiled at the Hippodrome tonight under the benign auspices of the Hon. Mike Jacobs.

Reading from left to right they are Senor Arturo Godoy, the toughest looking hombre you ever saw outside of a pirate film, and Leroy Haynes, a chocolate hued beak basher from Philadelphia. These are the pieces de resistance, as we say in the better pugilistic circles, but the Hon. Mike has some other tasty tidbits to offer, to wit: One Gunnar Barlund from Finland, who will strive to flatten Abe Feldman, a litvak from the Bowery; Abe Simon, a 250 pound broh of a boy from the same sector as Feldman, and one Lou Nova, who was faintly—very faintly—touched by a college education in California.

Nice Looking Boy
This Senor Godoy is a Chilean with a face like a gargoyle. His manager assures us he can eat nails for breakfast, take a little ground glass for lunch and lop it all off with some rat poison for dinner. You get the general idea—just a very vicious lad. His chief claim to fame is that he flattened poor old Firpo like a wet doormat. Mr. Haynes is the gent who made a more or less permanent hospital case out of old Satchel Foot Carner, a short right hand being the medium used. The terrible Senor is an 8 to 5 choice.

More Irregularities Charged In State

Republicans Issue Another Broadside Alleging Job Intimidation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The Republican national committee today issued another broadside charging WPA irregularities in Pennsylvania.

The committee cited instances of alleged job intimidation and what it described as an attempt to fraudulently register 105 members of the Blue Jay transient camp in Forest county.

Carried in government trucks, the transients were led to the polling place at Lynch by state automobiles containing these state officials the committee said, Joseph Landers, county highway superintendent Fred Keller, forests and water inpector, Scott Kifer, a Marienville politician; John Burns and George Masterson, WPA supervisors, and Clerk Hoover, of the highway district office. The registrar refused the transients registration because they were non-residents of the county.

The claims of job intimidation listed by the committee were: Louis Keller, 31 Pine street, Wilkes-Barre, and his mother, "forced" to register as Democrats in the primaries or he would have lost his WPA job.

Della L. Stanton and Nell Markely, supervisors of a WPA sewing project in Erie escorted women workers to the registration office.

Frank Kowalik, Anthony Kutchinsky and Peter Fisher, all residents of Lost Creek village, Schuylkill county, and WPA workers, reported their bosses told them to "vote right" or they would be laid off.

Harry Gross, 3125 Euclid avenue, Philadelphia, charged John Sheridan, a ward Democratic leader, accosted him in the registration place for the 23rd division of the 32nd ward, September 15 and offered him a WPA job.

Brought Here

Dolly Connor, of 1418 Thorpe street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parshall, who was hurt in an automobile accident on October 13, in Youngstown, is being removed from St. Elizabeth's hospital, Youngstown, to the New Castle hospital. Today.

Miss Connor suffered a broken shoulder and fracture and concussion of the skull. Her condition is favorable.

HOW TO BORROW on your own signature

No Endorsers Quick Service

No Wage Assignments

Lowest Rates in City

1. Single persons or married couples may borrow on their signatures only, or furniture, or auto. If they make small monthly payments. For example: $15.00 first month, decreasing each month to $10.00 last month repays a $200 loan in 20 months including charges. Pay faster and save costs. Other size loans in proportion. No questions asked of friends or employer. Private office.

2. To apply: Phone or see manager. Tell him how much money you want and when you want it. No obligation. Loan some day if you call before 10:00 a.m.

Oh where oh where
Is my little pipe gone
Oh where oh where has it gone
With its stem so long
And its bowl so strong
Oh where oh where has it gone.

Stock Market
Is Unsettled

Few Of Stocks Go Up, Few
Drop Slightly In Unsettled List

By LESLIE GOULD

International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Trading tapered off in a highly irregular stock market today, with plus signs slightly outnumbering minus in pivotal groups.

In steel shares Bethlehem and U. S. Steel each lost close to a point. Oil and Republic were somewhat easier.

Chrysler rose a point and General Motors nearly as much. Standard Oil of N. J., spurred a point and Atlantic Refining moved fractionally higher.

A few thin "blue chips" were under pressure. Westinghouse started 2½ points lower and regained but a small portion of this. Allied Chemical slipped more than a point. Western Union, converted an opening loss into a gain of a point.

Standard Gas issues were strong in a mild utility list. The seven percent preferred jumped more than two points.

Bonds were irregular, with rails easier. Grains improved, but cotton was slightly lower.

Skinner—Sewzuk's wife is very businesslike.

Szabo—That's a great advantage. Skinner—Nothing of the sort. She's put a time clock in the hall and he has to ring it every time he goes out or comes in.

But why is there so much prosperity in the headlines and so little in your pocket?

Ho-Hum! Time to Get Up

The superliner Queen Mary reached New York so early in the day that the shipwreck photographers had to invade the cabins of the celebrities. The lady yawning so prettily is Colette d'Arville, French concert singer, here for a recital tour. (Central Press)

Hunt for Rich Wife Fails

The Duke of Leinster is shown above with his Duchess, the former Rafaela von Neck, of New York City, whom he married after he had failed to secure the rich wife he sought to replenish the failing family fortune. The Duke frankly confessed his search for fortune in a bankruptcy hearing in London. (Central Press)

The prettiest and most popular co-eds of Ogden, Utah, high school are chosen by the cadets of the R. O. T. C. to sponsor the cadet hop, lead the boys on parade and during various demonstrations and exhibitions given during the year. This year the boys chose Mary Fister, lieutenant colonel; Lucille Jensen, captain, and Verna Lindsay, major. The other sponsors are: Maren Eccles, captain; Margaret Cross, captain; Cleone Fowles, Marion Crockett, Aurline Osmund and Marilyn Eccles.

Roosevelt Campaigning in His Home State

In Buffalo, N. Y., President Roosevelt (arrow), winding up his campaign tour which covered 5,000 miles, dedicated the new Federal Building. In the inset the President is shown, clad in raincoat but bareheaded, addressing several thousand enthusiastic Democrats who gathered in a heavy rain to hear him at Rochester. Later the President and Mrs. Roosevelt were dinner guests of Gov. and Mrs. Lehman in the governor's mansion at Albany. (Central Press)

Girl Reporter On Trip Across Pacific Ocean

Lands At Wake Island—
Next Hop On Flight Is
Midway

By DOROTHY KILGALLAN
(International News Service and New York Evening Journal Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1936, by International News Service and New York Evening Journal)
WAKE ISLAND, Oct. 21.—I'll have the laugh on old father time tomorrow—or is it today?

After hanging onto the hem of his robe for three weeks in my helicopter dash around the world, I'll whiz past the old gentleman tomorrow and leave him far behind.
I mean the China Clipper, with me safely encoined inside will roar across the international dateline, on the hop from Wake Island to Midway.

I'll have a taste of Thursday when we take off at dawn on the third leg of the Pacific crossing—while it's still Wednesday in America.
Then we'll skip across the invisible line that runs up and down the Pacific, and I'll hop back into Wednesday again!

It's all very confusing, but it's very gratifying to know that Leo Kieran and I can get the jump on father time, who chuckled at us for several days while we waited helplessly at Manila, with the Clipper held at Guam by typhoons.

The Clipper, bearing my fellow globe-girdler, Kieran, myself, and W. W. Chaplin, of International News Service and other newspapermen who made the previous Pacific passenger flight from California, landed on this tiny dot in the ocean at 8:17 o'clock tonight (12:47 a. m.
P.S.T.).

We made the 1450-mile hop from Guam, the United States naval outpost in the Pacific, in a little more than 12 hours.

Wake Island is the second roosting place on the sky trail across the Pacific from the Orient to California.

Al Smith Will Make Speech In Pittsburgh, Pa.

Will Probably See Notre Dame
And Pitt Grid Battle, Brown
Derbies Prevail

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—It will be "Brown Derby Day" when Al
Smith comes to town Saturday for another speech attacking the Roosevelt administration, it was revealed today.

But the derbies will be worn, not by Democrats, but by 500 Young Republicans who will welcome Smith, a Democrat who has become one of the President's severest critics.

Liberty League Report Filed

Receipts For Year To October 19 $419,282, Expenditures Of $461,851

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The American Liberty League today reported to the clerk of the house that its receipts for the year to Oct. 19 amounted to $419,282 and expenditures to $461,851.

While the report thus showed that the league has operated at a deficit in 1936, it still had a balance on hand of $50,629 on October 19 because of a surplus carried over from 1935.

Loans made up the bulk of the total of $30,000 received in the period from Sept. 1 to Oct. 19. Included were loans of $5,000 each from R. M.
Carpenter and Charles C. Copeland, both of Wilmington, Del.; Edward
F. Hutton, New York; G. B. Smith,
New York, and M. A. Smith, New York. Frank Phillips of Bartlesville, Okla., loaned the league $2,500.

Lammot DuPont of Wilmington was the only DuPont contributing in the last period. He gave $100, but previously had contributed $10,000.

Poverty is an aid to virtue. It is hard to be good if you're rich enough not to care what people think.

May 'Regiment' Hospital Field

Voluntary Hospitals Have Suffered Past Four Years
From Federal Imposition

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Fear was expressed today by members of the American College of Surgeons, now in session here, that the hospital field "soon may be slated for regimentation by the government."
Robert Jolly of Houston, Tex., former president of the American Hospital association, declared voluntary hospitals have "suffered during the last four years from government imposition and government competition." The government, Jolly said, went into direct competition with hundreds of private hospitals by spending money on the construction of veterans' hospitals. "Millions were poured into hospital buildings while 400 hospitals in the nation closed their doors for lack of patronage," he said.

Nail Bones Together
Dr. M. N. Smith-Peterson of Harvard university described how the carpenter's technique has been adopted by the surgeon in the repair of broken hip bones. The modern bone-setter nails the bones together, he explained. Through the broken parts of the bone is driven a long stainless steel nail, which acts as an internal splint and which can be removed or left in the bone after the break has healed.

Dr. Smith-Peterson also has devised a new method of treating sub-deltoid bursitis, commonly known as "tennis elbow" or "golfer's shoulder." He injects salt water into and washes out the sac which forms the "ball-bearing" for the muscle, reducing the fluid pressure.

Secretary Ickes Assails Landon

Calls Kansas Governor "State Socialist" In Address
Last Night

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Gov.
Alfred M. Landon, who has been assailing the Roosevelt administration for "interfering" with private business, only last year advocated some of the same things for which he now denounces the New Deal. Secretary of the Interior Ickes declared
last night.

Landon's record, said Ickes, makes him something of a "state socialist" himself, and "insincere" in his assaults on the New Deal innovations.
Ickes supported his state socialism charge by reading from a copy of a heretofore unrevealed letter written by Landon on Feb. 7, 1935, from the state house at Topeka advocating the use of PWA funds to build public state-wide telephone systems.

"There may be those unkind enough to think that, in the light of this letter," said Ickes, "that as a rugged individualist Governor Landon looks very much like a state socialist."

Also in December, 1934, Landon sent William Allen White, famous editor of Emporia, Kansas, to discuss with him, "in secrecy," Ickes said, a plan whereby the state of Kansas would build a pipe line to its southwest natural gas fields and market the gas in competition with private industry.

Kiwanis Convention Is To Close Today

District Officers And '37 Convention City Will Be Decided

New Castle's Kiwanis club state convention delegates will return from Pittsburgh at the close of the final convention session today. The Pennsylvania district conclave opened with a church service last Sunday.

Officers of the district were to be chosen today. Next year's convention site was also to be chosen.
Speaking before the delegates last night, James E. Isherwood, past state commander of the American Legion, declared that communism was insidiously invading American colleges and poisoning the minds of youth.
He advocated strengthening of national defense equipment and the maintenance of peace through preparedness.

Another speaker was S. M. Washbaugh, assistant superintendent of the Pennsylvania Industrial school at Huntingdon, who asked the Kiwanians to aid in the problem of social readjustment of paroled and released boys of the reform school.

Tires And Tubes Are Spilled On Butler Highway

(International News Service)
BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 21.—Two hundred automobile tires and some 2400 tubes, all in cartons, were strewn over the countryside today on Route 422 when a truck and trailer overturned.

John Foster, the driver, and William Collins, his helper, both of Akron, O., were unhurt. They blamed the failure of their brakes on a grade, according to police.

News Briefs From City Hall
Report was received by police today that Michael Lastoria, 15, of 1317 Croton avenue, is missing from home. He is five feet two inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has dark pants and sweater and hatless.
There was a break in the water line in Washington street between Public Square and Mercer street last night, a patrolman reported to headquarters.
Boys caused police to go to Rural avenue, Boyles avenue, Croton avenue, North Cedar street, Meyer avenue, Young street, Moody avenue and Crawford avenue last night. They have already started their Halloween pranks which is frowned upon by police.
Fire Chief Dick McIlwaine has had a force of men testing fire hy-drants and when found all right, had the employees of the fire department paint the hydrants a deep red.
Uniformed firemen are on duty at all public gatherings where smoking is not permitted. The firemen courteously but firmly enforce the rule and are making friends by their business-like action.
Wayne Sines, elected to a permanent police job yesterday, built the city's police radio; and on the payroll was listed as radio technician and paid as such. He now will be placed on the regular police payroll.
Fire Chief Dick McIlwaine stated today that one must have a permit to burn leaves. City Engineer Glenn Throp added that burning of leaves on unmet streets is not permitted because the fire ruins the pavement.
People who wish to burn rubbish and leaves can do so, providing they obtain a fire permit. This can be obtained from the firemen in charge of the fire house in the district where the property is located. There is no charge for the permit.
Henry Ruha, a young man who has been a frequent visitor to police court today was sentenced, on a charge of vagrancy, to the Allegheny county workhouse. Mayor Charles E. McGrath sent the young man there this morning for 90 days.
Utility company employees and WPA workers are working in North street between East and North Mercer street. WPA workers also have started the widening of the street between North Mercer and North Jefferson street.
NOT MANY OUT AFTER MIDNIGHT
Streets of the city were practically deserted after midnight last night, said Lieutenant of Police George Kennedy, who with other officers, combed different sections of the city for any suspicious characters that may have been lurking here. He said he saw none of the persons who usually stay out late at night.
Films Enjoyed By Wolves Club
Two rolls of films, presented by Preston Filaberty, featured last night's regular dinner meeting of the Wolves club, held in the Elks club, North Mill street.
"Flood Tide" and "Where Are We Going?" were the titles of the films. Joseph Capitola, of New York, who is here, was a special guest. The Wolves club meets again on Tuesday night, November 3.
